

phony 'Pop' son Begins; e Sings

First of the season's "pop" concerts by the Boston Symphony orchestra will be broadcast at 7:30 tonight by WENR, with Arthur Fiedler conducting the organization. The program will consist of "Marche Joyeuse," Chabrier; "Dances of Galanta," Kodaly; "Delirien Waltzes," Strauss; "1812" overture, Tschajkowsky. Other headliners tonight, classified:

Musical

6 p. m. — Cavalcade of America (WBBM): "Songs of the Mississippi."

7 p. m.—Grace Moore (WBBM): with Ronald Graham, Deems Taylor, Andre Kostelanetz' orchestra; "With a Song in My Heart," "May Day Carol," "He Is Good, He Is Kind," "Kiss Me Again."

8 p. m. — Symphonic Strings (WGN): "Symphony No. 11," Boyce; "Concerto for Two Violins," Bach.

Variety

6:30 p. m. — Tommy Dorsey Orchestra (WMAQ): "The Sheik" in 1921 style.

7 p. m. — Town Hall Tonight (WIBA, WMAQ): Fred Allen and "Lucky" Teter, auto test driver.

8:30 p. m. — It Can Be Done (WBBM): the Rev. E. J. Flanagan, Boys' Town founder.

Discussion

9:15 p. m. — Tri-State Hospital Assembly (WENR): care of emergency patients.

Dramatic

8 p. m.—Gang Busters (WBBM): California's "yacht bandits."

10:30 p. m. — Lights Out (WMAQ): "Devil's Island."

Thursdaytime

4:30 p. m.—Dane County Schools (WIBA): Oak Hall and Union Valley schools; Mrs. Irma Williams, county nurse.