

Programs

Cotton to Be 1; Krupa Club Show

One of the nation's major industries will be dramatized in an NBC broadcast tonight. "The Story of Cotton", on WMAQ at 6, will trace the history of the product from Whitney's invention of the gin until today and will follow the course of cotton from the field to tires, film and salad oils.

Other headliners tonight, classified:

Variety

6 p. m.—Swing Club (WBBM); with Gene Krupa, drummer; Buddy Frank, 13, clarinetist; Clay Boland, University of Pennsylvania composer.

7 p. m.—National Barn Dance (WIBA, WLS): western party honors Ranch Boys; Vass family, Uncle Ezra, others take part.

8 p. m. — Your Hit Parade (WBBM): with Nanette Guildford.

8:30 p. m. — Family Party (WLS): Kei... Merrill, California logger.

Discussion

8:45 p. m.—Capitol Opinions (WBBM): Rep. Samuel Dickstein on "Unamericanism Marches On."

Musical

7:30 p. m. — Saturday Night Serenade (WBBM): "Ouvre ton Coeur," "Sylvia."

8 p. m. — NBC Symphony (WMAQ): Sir Adrian Boult, conductor; William Primrose, viola soloist; "Comedy Overture", Busoni; "Symphony No. 7", Beethoven; "Concerto for Viola and Orchestra," Walton; "El Salon Mexico," Copland.

870
940
1000
1070
1090
1120
1130
1210
1280
1370
ange