

o's top tenor. The six foot three, 200
ome typical scenes. (1) After a workout
udly displaying a model of his 50-foot ce on his Connecticut farm. (4) In top ast.

An address by Herbert Hoover, former president of the United States, and guests appearances of Marjorie Lawrence, Jane Cowl, Beatrice Fairfax, Adrienne Ames, Joan Crawford, and Grete Stueckgold will mark tonight's radio schedules. The headliners, classified:

Musical

6 p. m.—Sinfonietta (WGN): "Concerto No. 3," Frederick the Great "Reverie," Glazounow; "Jewish Orchestra at the Ball," Gnessin.

7 p. m. — Toronto Promenade Symphony (WENR): and Marjorie Lawrence, soprano; "Haffner Symphony," Mozart. "Romeo and Juliet" overture, Tschaikowsky; music from "Gottterdammerung" and "Don Carlos."

8:30 p. m. — Concert Revue (WGN): Gilbert-Sullivan medley, "Volga Boat Song."

◇ ◇ ◇

Dramatic

8 p. m. — "A Passenger to Ball" (WENR): modern version of the Flying Dutchman theme.

◇ ◇ ◇

Variety

6 p. m.—Rudy Vallee (WIBA, WMAQ): plus Jane Cowl in "Rendezvous with Tomorrow;" Beatrice Fairfax . . . Kate Smith (WBBM): and seven-year-old Peter Holden of "On Borrowed Time."

7 p. m.—Good News of 1938 (WIBA, WMAQ): Joan Crawford and Robert Young in "Dark World."

8 p. m. — Music Hall (WIBA, WMAQ): Bing Crosby, Grete Stueckgold, Bob Burns, Adrienne Ames.

◇ ◇ ◇

Discussion

9:05 p. m. — Herbert Hoover (WENR): addresses Boys' Clubs of America.

◇ ◇ ◇

Miscellaneous

5 p. m. — American Academy (WBBM): award of Prix de Rome to Charles Naginski.

8:30 p. m.—Americans at Work (WBBM): the milkman.

10 p. m.—International Petroleum Exposition (WMAQ): description of models, interview with expert.

◇ ◇ ◇

Fridaytime

2 p. m.—From Paris (WCCO, KMOX): Premier Edouard Daladier on France's economic situation.

3:15 p. m.—First Aid Week: (WMAQ): "There's no Place Like Home—for Accidents."

3:30 p. m.—Voice of Wisconsin (WHA): U. W. Men's Glee club.

4:45 p. m.—Red Cross (WMAQ): Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick asks aid for Chinese civilians.

5:30 p. m.—Adventures in Science (WBBM): sunspots and radio.