

Programs

Benediction Broadcast Sunday

The benediction by Pope Pius XI, bringing to a close the 34th International Eucharistic congress at Budapest, will be broadcast in the United States over NBC-WMAQ on Sunday beginning at 3 a. m. The National Broadcasting co., will open its networks three hours earlier than usual in order to broadcast the papal benediction. His Holiness will speak from the Vatican.

Tonight's headline attractions, classified:

Variety

6:30 p. m.—Bands Across the Sea (WGN): "Some of These Days," "Dinah," "Cathedral in the Pines." . . . Johnny Presents (WBBM): reporter who reported heiress' kidnaping, changed it to elopement, wound up as the groom.

7 p. m.—National Barn Dance (WIBA, WLS): Oliver M. Burkhardt, ornithologist, headlines bird program.

8 p. m.—Your Hit Parade (WBBM): with Hildegarde.

Dramatic

6:30 p. m.—"I Got a Destiny" (WCFL): Memorial day drama.

Discussion

6:30 p. m.—U. W. International Club (WIBA): Orlando Garcia on Cuban life, government.

8:45 p. m.—Capitol Opinions (WBBM): Rep. Emanuel Celler (dem., N. Y.) on "Tom Mooney Should Be Pardoned Immediately."

Musical

7 p. m. — NBC Symphony (WMAQ): Dmitri Mitropoulos of Minneapolis Symphony, conductor; "Dido and Aeneas" excerpts, Purcell; "Symphony No. 2 in C Major," Schumann; "Overture on Greek Themes, No. 1," Glazounow; Chopin numbers arranged by Lewitzki.

7:30 p. m.—Saturday Night Serenade (WBBM): "Russian Lullaby." "Somewhere a Voice Is Calling."

8:45 p. m.—Svithiod Chorus (WMAQ): in American-Swedish tercentenary concert.