

Programs

Lawrence, Althouse on Guestar List

Guestars galore will be on the air tonight, giving listeners a Thursday typical of mid-season. Among them will be Paul Althouse, Sabu, star of "Elephant Boy"; Gertrude Lawrence, Sterling Holloway, Ann Jamison, William Gaxton, Bob Hope, Everett Marshall, Shirley Ross, Fred Keating, and Morton Downey. The aces, classified:

Musical

7 p. m.—Toronto Promenade Symphony (WLS): Reginald Stewart, conductor; Paul Althouse, tenor: "Rienzi" overture, "Spring Song" from "The Valkyries," "Siegfried Idyll," "Lohengrin's Narrative," "Tannhauser" overture.

Dramatic

8 p. m.—Columbia Workshop (WBBM): "Outward Bound."

Variety

6 p. m.—Rudy Vallee (WIBA, WMAQ): with Judy Canova and company, Sabu, Oswald and Stanton. . . Mutual Salute (WGN): first of tonight's series of birthday parties; Morton Downey, Vera Van Fuzzy Knight, Warren Hull.

6:30 p. m. — Mutual Salute (WGN): Bob Hope, Shirley Ross, Fred Keating, Everett Marshall.

7 p. m.—Good News (WIBA, WMAQ): Robert Taylor returns; Virginia Verrill, Fanny Brice.

7:30 p. m. — Mutual Salute (WGN): William Gaxton, Benny Venuta.

8 p. m.—Music Hall (WIBA, WMAQ): Gertrude Lawrence, Sterling Holloway, Ann Jamison, Bob Burns.

8:30 p. m. — Mutual Salute (WGN): Attilio Baggirore, Kathryn Witwer, Mark Love, Adolph Hoffman.

9:30 p. m. — Mutual Salute (WGN): Josef Cherniavsky orchestra, Vicki Chase, the Smoothies.

Miscellaneous

8:30 p. m.—Americans at Work (WBBM): Corey Island concessionaries.

Fridaytime

10:30 a. m.—Farm and Home Hour (WIBA, WMAQ): R. P. A. Johnson of Forest Products laboratory on selecting lumber.

12:30 p. m. — Farm Hour (WHA): salute to state's crop reporters.

5:30 p. m.—Adventures in Science (WBBM): "heavy hydrogen."

Fan Fare

From Hollywood:

Last-minute rush for programs has several trans-continental shows unable to get time.

Paul Douglas set to announce the Burns and Allen show at $1,000 a week.

George Raft and Bill Frawley are huddling for a trans-continental show. Ditto Alice Brady with a dramatic serial and Frank Fay with a variety show.

W. C. Fields in a huddle with sponsor for Fields to do a comedy spot on "The Hit Parade."

Stroud twins are off the Charlie McCarthy show, as of Sept. 25.

Three sponsore are dickering with Father Flanagan, founder of Boystown, for dramatic shows based on the success of boys who were formerly inmates of the home.