

Programs

Election Results, Robinson Tonight

Results of the primary in Dane county and the state will be aired throughout the night by station WIBA. The first returns will be broadcast tonight shortly after six and continue until the outcome in the various elections are definite.

Three programs, one new and two old, will have their initial broadcasts tonight. They are:

A new quiz show, "The Battle of the Sexes" will have Frank Crumit and Julia Sanderson in the leading roles, trying to "best" each other in knowledge. Alan Kent will referee. The program will be aired through station WMAQ at 7 p. m.

"Big Town," the city with all the rackets imaginable, will be resumed at 8 p. m. over station WBBM. Edward G. Robinson and Claire Trevor, again, are starred.

Al Jolson returns to the air with Douglas "Wrong Way" Corrigan as guest. Martha Raye, Parkyakarkus, and Lud Gluskin's orchestra complete the cast. Station WBBM is this area's outlet, and the time will be 6:30 p. m.

Tonight's and Wednesdaytime's highlights, classified:

Variety

6:30 p. m.—Information Please (WIBA, WMAQ): Clarence Budington Kelland, writer, guestars.

7:30 p. m.—Fibber McGee (WIBA): the efficiency expert.

7:30 p. m.—Jamboree (WENR): Barney Connett, one man submarine, appears.

9:30 p. m.—Johnny Presents (WIBA): a stowaway boy heads the program.

Music

7:30 p. m.—Benny Goodman (WBBM): some Kansas City swing.

8:30 p. m.—The Northerners (WGN): Earl Wilkie, baritone, soloist.

Wednesdaytime

10:30 a. m.—Farm and Home Hour (WIBA, WMAQ): ways and means to "Better Housekeeping."

1:30 p. m.—American Legion (WIBA): Judge C. Kelly in special broadcast to the auxiliary.

2 p. m.—Berkshire Music Festival (WHAS, WCCO): the first of three programs, presenting chamber music.