

Keynote Programs for Tonight

An address by former Pres. Herbert Hoover, a broadcast from the Wisconsin Congregational conference, a professional football game, and appearances of guest stars will lend variety to tonight's radio schedules. The attractions, classified:

Discussion

7:30 p. m.—Congregational Conference (WIBA): the Rev. Charles H. Beale on "Achievement and Promise."

8:30 p. m. — Herbert Hoover (WBBM): "Morality in Government."

Musical

8:30 p. m.—Talesin String Quartet (WIBA).

9 p. m.—Art of Musical Russia (WENR): Nicolai's "The Merry Wives of Windsor."

Sports

6:30 p. m. — Meet the Team (WIBA): dressing room interviews.

7 p. m.—Pro Football (WTMJ): Cardinals vs. Packers (on WIND at 9.)

10:15 p. m.—Big 10 Sports Huddle (WBBM): Coach Lynn Waldorf and Northwestern squad.

Dramatic

6:30 p. m. — Living History (WBBM): slavery and the Missouri compromise.

7 p. m.—Gang Busters (WBBM): the case of Willie Mason, midwestern "master mind."

7:30 p. m.—"Old Bannerman" (WLS): continuing on WENR at 8.

Variety

7 p. m. — Roy Shield Revue (WLS): "Carmita," "Somebody Loves Me," "My Own."

7:30 p. m. — Paul Whiteman (WBBM): honors memory of Bix Beiderbecke with three compositions.

8 p. m.—Town Hall Tonight (WIBA, WMAQ): with Col. Stoopnagle.

8:30 p. m. — For Men Only (WMAQ): with Sally Rand, Sabu, Robert Wildhack . . . Minstrels (WENR): "Dance Night".

Thursdaytime

12:30 p. m.—Voice of the Farm (WIBA): with Edward Malcheski, of Brown county, Wisconsin.

5:30 p. m. — Eddie Dooley (WENR): and Coach Lou Little of Columbia.