

to the microphone without scripts
Taylor, both six-years-old, who
the Man's Family on NBC. Too full meaning, they memorize their

BULLETIN

Faul Reynaud, minister of finance to France, will be heard through WIBA at 7:45 a. m. Thursday in a discussion of the currently important internal situation in France. Reynaud will speak from the American club in Paris.

With the assistance of the Mighty Allen Art players, Comedian Fred Allen will satirize radio's audience-participation programs during Town Hall Tonight on WIBA-WMAQ at 8 tonight.

Taking the role of Dabrial Eeater, Allen will interview such persons as a man who collects cheese from old mousetraps and a farmer who grows patriotic corn. As Fred Allen, he will interview Hilma Koivula, New York woman barber.

Other headliners tonight:

Variety

7:30 p. m.—Hobby Lobby (WLS): talking bird, collectors of convict uniforms, mustache lore, swindlers' paraphernalia. . . . Paul Whiteman (WBBM): "Mutiny in the Nursery," "Haystraw," "Change Partners," "Siberian Sleighride."

8 p. m.—Star Theater (WBBM): Adolphe Menjou, Andrea Leeds, John Barrymore, Ned Sparks, others.

9:30 p. m.—It Can Be Done (WBBM): Ralph Hitz—dishwasher to manager of seven New York hotels.

◆ ◆ ◆

Dramatic

7 p. m.—Gang Busters (WBBM): story of man who escaped from prison's death cell.

8 p. m.—Your Health (WENR): "Rest, Relaxation, and Recreation."

9 p. m.—Famous Jury Trials (WGN): artist-slayer.

◆ ◆ ◆

Thursdaytime

1:30 p. m.—School of the Air (WBBM): insects.

4 p. m.—Madison Concert Orchestra (WHA).

5 p. m.—Metropolitan Operaxlogue (WCFL): Frederick Jagel comments on "Otello."

5.30 p. m.—You and Your Hobby (WENR): simple mechanical toys.

11:15—The Editor's Daughter.