

Programs

For Every Family on Airwaves

Tonight's radio is programmed to give every member of the family something he wants. The classical music lover and the barnyard addict will have their symphonies and square dances, respectively. The variety programs will furnish the light all-around entertainment. A complete hour by hour listing of the ace programs follow:

6 p. m.—Swing Club (WBBM): Walter Gross takes the baton and the Whiteman "Swinging Strings" guestar. . . . Red Foley (WMAQ): "The Cowboy and the Lady" and "Have You Forgotten so Soon."

7 p. m. — Johnny Presents (WBBM): Robert Louis Stevenson's "Markheim." . . . Tommy Briggs and Betty Lou (WMAQ): with "Schlepperman."

7:30 p. m. — Fred Waring (WMAQ): presenting Jimmy Atkins, swing guitarist. . . . Prof. Quiz (WBBM): the hill-billy tries his hand.

8 p. m.—Barn Dance (WIBA, WMAQ): Max Terhune, movie imitator, helps the fun at the "Christmas Frolic." . . . Men Against Death (WBBM): the story of Ignatz Semmelweiss, "Saver of Mothers."

8:30 p. m.—Saturday Night Serenade (WBBM): "Don't Wait Until the Night Before Christmas."

9 p. m. — NBC Symphony Orchestra (WIBA, WMAQ): Conductor Artur Rodzinski presents Carl Maria von Weber's "Euryanthe", Anton Dvorak's "Fourth Symphony", and Paul Hindemith's "Till Eulenspiegel." . . . Hit Parade (WBBM): featuring Lanny Ross and Raymond Scott and his quintet.