

ns to Normal; Peter Lorre ir Guests

Radio returns to normal tonight, with plenty of gueststars listed, including Fred Allen, Peter Lorre, Joe Venuti, George Gallup, and Lum and Abner.

The outstanding programs for tonight and Wednesdaytime, classified:

Variety

6:15 p. m. — Vocal Varieties (WIBA, WMAQ): "Oh, Promise Me".

7 p. m. — Johnny Presents (WIBA, WMAQ): a fish alibi foils the perfect crime.

7:30 p. m. — Al Jolson (WBBM): and Peter Lorre (Mr. Moto), . . . For Men Only (WIBA, WMAQ): Fred Allen disagrees with Experts George Gallup, director of Public Opinion, John Gunther, newspaperman, and Abel Green, sports expert.

8 p. m. — We, the People (WBBM): interviewing a press agent.

8:30 p. m. — Fibber McGee (WIBA, WMAQ): turns to the political field . . . Benny Goodman (WBBM): invites Joe Venuti, "King of Fiddle", to go to work.

9 p. m. — Bob Hope (WIBA, WMAQ): Lum and Abner talk over "those new-fangled radio ideas."

Dramatic

7 p. m.—Big Town (WBBM): re-grading the civil service exams.

9 p. m.—Dr. Christian (WBBM): wife turns glamour girl to win hubby back.

Discussion

7:30 p. m. — Information Please (WLS): Prof. William Lyon Phelps joins the "experts."

9 p. m.—If I Had the Chance (WENR): Gertrude Atherton, novelist, Bill Holman, cartoonist, and Maurice Hellbrand, former government agent, tell their secret desires.

Music

9:30 p. m. — The Northerners (WGN): a New Year's message of peace in music.

Wednesdaytime

12:15 p. m. — Farm Radio (WMAQ, WIBA): some plans for poultry improvements.

2 p. m.—Indianapolis Symphony (KMOX): overtures of French noels.

2:15 p. m.—Rochester Civic orchestra (WIBA): Overture to "Mignon" and La Vahn Naesch's "Pastoral" and "Festival".

4 p. m. — Birthday Talk (WHAS, KMOX): "Woodrow Wilson's Place in History."

5 p. m. — Geological Society (WIBA): from the joint meeting of the conference.