

Session Legislature Wednesday

The inaugural session of the 1939 Wisconsin legislature will be aired Wednesday morning over station WIBA at 11:45. The swearing in of new members, the roll call, and the election of the speaker of the house and president pro tem will be broadcast.

Tonight's airwaves is saturated with gueststars. The more prominent to be heard include Tom Mooney, Jim Tully, Alexander Woolcott, Richard Greene, Kate Smith, Charlie Butterworth, and Josef Lhevinne. Tonight's and Wednesday's "best bets" follow, classified:

Variety

6:15 p. m.—Vocal Varieties (WMAQ): "Mutiny in the nursery."

7 p. m.—Johnny Presents (WIBA, WMAQ): another "perfect crime."

7:30 p. m.—Al Jolson (WBBM): welcomes Richard Greene back from England . . .

For Men Only (WIBA, WMAQ): Kate Smith and Jim Tully take the "mike."

8 p. m.—We, the People (WBBM): Tom Mooney tells plans and Josef and Rosin Lhevinne, pianists, talk "shop."

8:30 p. m.—Benny Goodman (WBBM): presenting "sweet swing." . . . Fibber McGee (WIBA, WMAQ): turns fireman.

9 p. m.—Bob Hope (WIBA, WMAQ): with Charlie Butterworth in harness.

Discussion

7:30 p. m.—Information Please (WLS): Alexander Woolcott returns as guest "expert."

8 p. m. High School Forum (WIBA): "What are the financial and legal aspects of renting, buying, or selling property?"

Drama

7 p. m.—Big Town (WBBM): "It's Tough to Go Straight."

8 p. m.—Mary and Bob (WENR): "After My Divorce."

9 p. m.—Dr. Christian (WBBM): "Guest of Honor"; the visit of two doctors.

10:30 p. m.—"Drums of Hate" (WBBM): from a floor show in one of Chicago's night clubs.

Music

6:30 p. m.—Concert Ensemble (WIBA): Irv Windward, former football player, makes singing debut.

9:30 p. m.—The Northerners (WGN): Bernice Rickman, guest soloist.

Miscellaneous

9 p. m.—If I Had A Chance (WENR): Elsa Lanchester, Joan Edwards, and George Eggleston tell their ambitions.

Wednesday

11:30 a. m.—Farm and Home Hour (WIBA, WMAQ): advice to chicken growers.

12:15 p. m.—Farm Radio (WIBA, WMAQ): electricity on the farm.

1:30 p. m.—School of Air (WBBM): glimpse into the laboratories of M. I. T.

2 p. m.—Indianapolis Symphony (WHAS, KMOX): in weekly concert.

2:15 p. m.—Women's club (WIBA): discussion of problems vital to women.

4 p. m.—Birthday Ball (WIBA): Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt speaks on infantile paralysis.