

Franchot Tone To Be Heard In Drama On Smith Program

Noted Star Set For Broadcast At 8 P. M. Thursday; Crosby To Have Popular Guests

Franchot Tone in a dramatic sketch and the MacFarland Twins in a sweet and swinging symphonic rendition of "When The Moon Comes Over The Mountain" will be featured on the Kate Smith Hour in its broadcast over WAFB Thursday at 8 p. m.

Kate Smith will be starred in a production of music to be enthusiastically supported by the Jack Miller vocal stars, the Ted Straeter duet duo, Clon Abbott and Costello and the Alrich Family. The Straeter duo will sing "Hound Dog" and "Low Bass" and will sing

Kate Smith will be starred in a production of music to be enthusiastically supported by the Jack Miller vocal stars, the Ted Straeter duet duo, Clon Abbott and Costello and the Alrich Family. The Straeter duo will sing "Hound Dog" and "Low Bass" and will sing for his career. He was born in New York and has found success in the New York stage scene. He has written "Conduct Your Ladies" and "Grow The Ladies" and "The Lady". He has written in many circles including "Lives of a Beautiful Lancer" and "Merry of the Bounty". More recently he has established himself as a sophisticated comedy on the Kate Smith Hour he will appear in an original dramatic sketch.

Meliza Korjus, latest singing screen sensation and a talented group of Hollywood players—Cecilia Parker, Dennis O'Keefe, Nat Pendleton and Alvin Currier in preview scene from the forthcoming motion picture, "Burn 'Em Up O'Connor" will provide musical and dramatic highlights on Good News of 1939 Thursday at 9:00 p. m. over WFAF. Emcee Robert Young will also welcome Tony Martin back to the Good News microphone and present the regular players—Lanny Bruce, Frank Morgan, Hanley Stafford, Meredith Wilson and his orchestra, and Max Teri Chorus and Warren Hull.

Meliza Korjus, who recently sang her way to stardom in "The Great Waltz" will be heard in an aria from "La Traviata" and "The Song of India". Tony Martin will offer "Begin the Beguine" and "One of Nowhere" and Meredith Wilson will present a special arrangement of "Jubelae" and "Lee Sings The Moth", as the first number in his new series of "Modern Pictures in the American Manner".

Three esteemed alumni of the Music Hall are guests of Bing Crosby and Bob Burns in the broadcast Thursday. Wayne Morris, Spring Byington of the films, and Griet Stueckelrod of the Metropolitan opera are the graduates of the Hall who will join Bing and Bob. Ken Carpenter, John Scott Trotter's orchestra and the Paul Taylor chorus in the show over WFAF at 10 p. m.

Wayne Morris is the movie actor who has won in the best performance as a boxer in the

BEST BETS THURSDAY

P. M.	STATION	PROGRAM
7:30	WAFB	THE KATE SMITH HOUR
7:55	WAFB	THE KATE SMITH HOUR
8:00	WAFB	THE KATE SMITH HOUR
8:00	WAFB	THE KATE SMITH HOUR
8:00	WAFB	THE KATE SMITH HOUR
9:00	WAFB	THE KATE SMITH HOUR
9:00	WAFB	THE KATE SMITH HOUR
10:00	WAFB	THE KATE SMITH HOUR

movies to date. In "Kid Galahad" and "The Kid Comes Back" he looked so good with the gloves on that the Jack Dempsey predicted a future in the ring if he would only give up acting. Wayne is also fat enough with reputation to make him an honor man at K. M. H.

Spring Byington, although little known under her real name is familiar to all moviegoers as the mother in "The Jones Family" series. In her last appearance with Bing she showed unusual talent at informal talk.

Walter O'Keefe, hinter master of the anaxes and Tommy Dorsey, national trombone champion, met on Tommy's show Wednesday to settle once and for all the question "Swing Is It Here To Stay?" O'Keefe took the guest spot on Tommy's show one day before his debut on one of the new year's important premieres—the "Funiculi Funicula" series starting on WAFB Thursday at 10 p. m. with Andy Westlake, Kay Thompson and the great Lily Pons.

Harold L. Ickes, secretary of the interior and Frank L. G. a recent owner of the Gannett newspaper will present their views on the subject "Do We Have a Free Press?" during the American Love Meeting of the Air-broadcaster Thursday at 9:00 p. m. over