

The Wisconsin basketball team will invade Indiana tonight in seeking its second Big Ten victory, and Station WIBA will broadcast the battle direct from Bloomington, Ind., at 7:30 p. m.

Comedian Phil Baker turns tropical in his initial broadcast of his "Hawaii Bound" series tonight. With Baker will be his faithful butler, "Bottle", the Andrew Sisters, Johnny Pineapple and his guitar, and Eddie DeLange's orchestra. Station WBBM will air the show at 8.

Other highlight programs on tonight's airwaves follow, classified:

Music

9 p. m. — NBC Symphony (WMAQ): Arturo Toscanini directs overture to "Saul", Bazzini; "First Symphony, Opus 10," Shostakovich; excerpts from "Psyche," Franck; "Salome Dance", Straus.

Sports

8 p. m.—Basketball (WIND): Northwestern vs. Ohio State.

Discussion

6 p. m.—Americans at Work (WBBM): interviewing three generations of shipbuilders . . . Message to Israel (WENR): "Religion Calls to the World."

7 p. m.—Refugee Plans (WCFL): Dr. A. B. Silver, Dr. Stephen Wise, and Dr. Israel Goldstein discuss plans of American Jewry for establishing additional colonies in Palestine.

9:15 p. m.—Income Tax Problems (WGN): Prof. Stewart McMullen, Northwestern, presents first of six lectures on taxation.

Variety

6 p. m.—Red Foley Revue (WMAQ): "tunes of tomorrow."

6:30 p. m. — Joe E. Brown (WBBM): the talent scout scouts.

7 p. m.—Johnny Presents (WBBM): "The Valiant", a death-cell epic . . . Tommy Riggs and Betty Lou (WMAQ): Henry Youngman gueststars.

7:30 p. m. — Fred Waring (WMAQ): another child soloist is introduced.

8 p. m.—National Barn Dance (WLS): Alec Templeton, blind pianist, added to troupe . . . Vox Pop (WMAQ): questions are doggy.

8:30 p. m.—Serenade (WBBM): "Limehouse Blues" and "Two Sleepy People."

9 p. m.—Hit Parade (WBBM): the "10 best tunes" by Leo Reisman's orchestra.