

Lombard, Co The Marxes

Another "star-studded" variety hour will hit the airwaves tonight when "The Circle" makes its initial appearance. Starring Ronald Colman, Carole Lombard, Cary Grant, Lawrence Tibbett, the Marx brothers, and Robert Emmett Dolan's orchestra, the program will be aired over station WMAQ at 9.

Today's and Mondaytime's highlight programs follow, classified:

Religious

9 a. m.—Radio Pulpit — "The World That Follow Us" . . . Church of Air (WBBM): "The Spirit of the Pioneer" by Bishop C. L. Mead, Methodist of Kansas City.

11 a. m.—First Congregational Church (WIBA): the Rev. A. W. Swan speaks.

3 p. m.—National Vespers (WENR): "The Principle of Released Power."

5 p. m.—Catholic Hour (WMAQ, WIBA): "True Liberty."

8:15 p. m. — Sunday Club (WIND): "Things You Ought to Do and Do Not Do," a group discussion.

Discussion

10:15 a. m.—Reviewing Stand (WGN): two Northwestern professors discuss "Congress at Work."

11:30 a. m. — Round Table (WMAQ): educators ask "Is Security Increasing?"

2:30 p. m.—Peoples' Rally (WGN): the question: "Should Relief Workers Be Paid Current Industrial Wages or Merely Subsistence Wages?"

6 p. m. — Peoples' Platform (WBBM): Mrs. Dorothy Bellanca, union official, asks "Should We Change the Wagner Act?"

7:45 p. m.—Washington Comments (WGN): Arthur Sears Henning discusses events in the national capitol.

Dramatic

12 m.—Great Plays (WENR): "The School for Scandal."

1 p. m.—Americans All—Immigrants All (WBBM): contributions of the German people.

1:45 p. m.—Dramatized Verse (WMAQ): "Hole in the Wall."

4:30 p. m.—The Shadow (WGN): finds out that "Ghosts Can Kill."

5 p. m. — Silver Theater (WBBM): Myrna Loy in "Debutante."

5:30 p. m.—Gateway to Hollywood (WBBM): Joan Bennett in "I Owe You My Love."

6:30 p. m. — Seth Parker (WENE): Jonesport sends the African "heathens" trinkets . . .

Wayside Theater (WBBM): "Spawn of the City."

8 p. m.—Hollywood Playhouse (WBBM): Jane Wyman and Tyrone Power in "Caviar on the Cob."

8:45 p. m.—Irene Rich (WENR): "White Butterfly", depicting the search for happiness.

Music

9:30 a. m.—Music and American Youth (WIBA): Madrigal Singers from St. Louis.

2 p. m.—N. Y. Philharmonic (WBBM): Ernest Schelling, guest soloist. The program: Overture to "Prometheus" by Beethoven, "Polish Fantasia" by Paderewski, "Verklarte Nacht" by Schoenberg, and Symphony No. 4, in A Major ("Italian") by Mendelssohn . . .

Frank Simon's Band (WENR): featuring youthful prodigies of instrumental music.

4 p. m.—Metropolitan auditions (WENR): another batch of hopefuls sing for the critics.

5 p. m.—Sunday Evening Hour (WBBM): Jussi Bjoerling, Swedish tenor, soloist. Program: Overture to "Il Signor Brushino" by Rossini, "O Paradiso" by Meyerbeer, "La Danza" by Rossini, "Alla Marcia" by Sibelius, "Barcarolle" by Offenbach, "The Maid Returned from the Trysting Place" by Sibelius, "The Spring" by Hindach, "Land of Walsing's Glory" by Althen, "Funiculi, Funicula" by Danza, "Emperor Waltz" by Strauss, and "Life of Ages, Richly Poured" by Freylinghuysen.

8:30 p. m.—Familiar Music (WIBA, WMAQ): old favorites.

11 p. m.—Music As Desired (WENR): Helsinki University choir.

Variety

1 p. m.—Magic Key (WIBA, WENR): the stage and screen will be represented by Margal Gilmore, Sylvia Brema, Robert Wildhack, and the "girls trio" from "The Boys from Syracuse."

2 p. m.—Sunday Afternoon (WGN): popular tunes.

4 p. m.—Steelmakers (WGN): old songs highlighted.

5:30 p. m.—Show of Week (WGN): with Will Osborne's orchestra.

6 p. m.—Jack Benny (WIBA, WMAQ): the amateur sleuth.

6:30 p. m. — Screen Guild (WHAS): Fred Astaire, Herbert Marshall, and Loretta Young participate.

6:30 p. m.—Band Wagon (WIBA, WMAQ): Xavier Cugat and orchestra hop on.

7 p. m.—Variety Hour (WIBA, WMAQ): Rosalind Russell appears in a sketch . . . This Is New York (WBBM): Ethel Waters, Sheila Barrett, and Rosa Linda tell all.

8 p. m.—Your Sunday Date (WGN): featuring Tom, Dick and Harry.

9 p. m.—Melody and Madness (WBBM): Robert Benchley's theory on feeding a family.

Sports

10 p. m.—Hockey (WGN): Blackhawks vs. Rangers.

Miscellaneous

12:30 p. m. — Fair Salute (WMAQ, WGN, WBBM): Den-