

Attorney Tony Hale manage to mix problems of the poor in Metrozizations of "Her Honor, Nancy work. Mondays through Fridays. of the energetic young lady lawyer of common problems. Ned Wever te-a-tetes with Nancy almost as administration and prosecuting.

Conduct sini, lla Music

Works of Gluck, Mozart, de Falla, and Rossini will be offered by Arturo Toscanini and NBC Symphony orchestra in the weekly concert at 9 tonight over WIBA and WMAQ.

Samuel Chotzinoff will explain the background of each piece. The program:

Overture to "Iphigenie in Aulis", Gluck; "Symphony in D Major," Mozart; "El Amor Brujo", de Falla; overture to "William Tell," Rossini.

Other highlight programs for tonight, listed chronologically.

6 p. m. — Message of Israel (WENR): "Building Bridges of Better Understanding" . . . Red Foley's Revue (WMAQ): "Cotton Pickets Congregation" played for the first time . . . Americans at Work (WBBM): glass-blowers interviewed.

6:30 p. m. — Joe E. Brown (WBBM): the talent scout at work.

7 p. m. — Johnny Presents (WBBM) Poe's "Tell-Tale Heart" dramatized and Johnny Green's music featured . . . Tommy Riggs and Betty Lou (WMAQ): the Radio Rogues return.

7:30 p. m. — Fred Waring (WMAQ): "The Preacher and the Bear" musically dramatized . . . Prof. Quiz (WBBM): some "answers" that should be right but aren't.

8 p. m. — Barn Dance (WIBA, WLS): dramatic sketch of Ferde Grofe's "Mississippi Suite" with Alex Templeton at the piano . . . Vox Pop (WMAQ): "Two-Ton" Galento, boxer, and Georgia Coleman, swimmer, guestar . . . Phil Baker (WBBM): the Andrew sisters introduce Cole Porter's "My Heart Belongs to Daddy."

9 p. m. — Hit Parade (WBBM): Mark Warnow's orchestra replaces Russ Morgan's orchestra.

9:30 p. m. — Cornhuskin' Party (WLS): a variety program down on Henry Hornbuckle's farm.

9:45 p. m. — Capitol Opinions (WBBM): Sen. Rush D. Holt speaks on "WPA—A Paradise for Bosses."