

Whiteman Honors Herbert With Tribute Tonight

Paul Whiteman will pay musical tribute to the memory of his friend Victor Herbert on the 80th anniversary of the late composer's birth tonight over station WBBM at 7:30. The selection honoring Herbert will be the "Cuban Serenade" from "A Suite of Serenades"

Other highlight programs featured tonight and Thursdaytime follow, classified:

Variety

7:30 p. m.—Tommy Dorsey (WMAQ): a modern version of "Chopsticks."

8 p. m.—Fred Allen (WIBA, WMAQ): the feuding Allen interviews a wine taster. . . . Star Theater (WBBM): Ken Murray acts as master of ceremonies with Kenny Baker, Charlie Ruggles, and Ned Sparks participating.

9 p. m.—Ky Kyser (WMAQ, WIBA): musical knowledge from the musical college. . . . It Can Be Done (WBBM): Edgar Guest interviews a blind executive.

9:30 p. m.—Musical Counter (WGN): dramatization of "After the Ball was Over" in musical verse.

Drama

7 p. m. — One Man's Family (WMAQ): complications set in upon Paul. . . . Gang Busters (WBBM): the story of a boy who killed for a salary of $10 per week.

8 p. m.—Green Hornet (WGN): a gang lord is convinced that times have changed.

11:30 p. m. — Lights Out (WMAQ, WIBA): an unannounced thriller.

Discussion

8 p. m.—Your Health (WENR): "Dodging Contagious Diseases—Preventing Epidemics."

9:30 p. m.—Public Interests (WENR): Mark Sullivan and Jay Franklin discuss "Relief—What to Do About It."

Miscellaneous

6:30 p. m. — Ask-It-Basket (WBBM): a geography quiz.

7 p. m.—NBC Anniversary (WIBA): the international broadcasting feats will be described and dramatized. The story of how foreign broadcasts are achieved will be explained.

Thursdaytime

11:30 a. m.—Farm and Home Hour (WIBA, WMAQ): from the National Western Livestock show in Denver, Colo.

12:45 p. m. — Farm News (WIBA, WMAQ): "The Dairy Industry and Some of Its Problems."

1:30 p. m. — School of Air (WBBM): the contemporary scene and the need for national defense.

1:45 p. m.—Hymns of Churches (WMAQ): "Carry Away a Song," a new hymn presented for the first time.