

Great Array Of Talent On Tap For 'We, The People' Hour

Scoutmaster Of Only Blind Troop, Alexander, Famous Baseball Pitcher To Be Heard At 9 p. m. Tuesday

Fred Bolotin, scoutmaster, and Leon Shash, patrol leader, of the only blind Boy Scout troop in the world; Leon Hopkins of Springfield, Ill., last man to view the body of Abraham Lincoln; Grover Cleveland Alexander, once famous baseball pitcher and Harold Babb, recent graduate of the government's army flying school at Kelly Field, San Antonio, Texas, will be guests of Gabriel Heater on "We, The People" over WABC Tuesday at 9:00 p. m.

In their "We, The People" appearance, Bolotin and Shash will tell of the work accomplished by their group—Troup 300 of Chicago—in establishing self reliance in afflicted boys since it was organized in 1923. Encouraged to function as normally as any scout organization in its athletics and craft work, the group has among its "graduates" a prominent attorney, a public school music authority and a professional pianist.

Patsy Kelly, talented comedienne, will join the regular cast of Bob Hope's Show during the broadcast Tuesday, from 10:00 to 10:30 p. m. over WEAF.

Shirley Ross, Hope's leading lady in several motion pictures, will make her third appearance as guest star during the broadcast.

Miss Kelly will appear opposite Hope in comedy scenes, and in the song sketches which also feature Jerry Colonna (the mad professor), Bill Goodwin, the Six Hits and a Miss and Skinnay Ennis and his orchestra.

An author, comedian, composer and singer will reveal hidden ambitions to Cal Tinney during the If I Had the Chance program Tuesday, from 10:00 to 10:30 p. m., over WJZ.

Proving the old adage that the grass is always greener in the next pasture will be Al Pearce, comedian; Elaine Sterne Carrington, author of numerous popular radio scripts; Jacques Wolfe, composer, and Conrad Thibault, baritone.

Myron Wallace, a University of Michigan undergraduate, will be added to the Information Please broad of experts for the WJZ broadcast Tuesday at 8:30 p. m., in a test of the old and the new. Franklin P. Adams, one of the regulars of the board of experts, is a Michigan old grad of the class of 1903. Clifton Fadiman, the program's ruthless master of ceremonies, will single out the two Michiganders with his questions on any and all subjects. John Kieran will be on hand as the other regular and Oscar Levant as the other guest for the occasion.

Adolphe Menjou and his wife, Veree Teasdale, are to lend a Continental touch to the Al Jolson broadcast, Tuesday, via WABC at 8:30 p. m. The famous screen pair is slated to engage in smart repartee with Jolson and trade verbal punches with Martha Raye and Parkyakarkus. Song numbers old and new are to be offered by Al and Martha, with the aid of Lud Gluskin's orchestra.

The story of a lawyer whose cheating of an important client was interrupted when a slight flaw in his plan trapped him will be dramatized in the "Perfect Crime" series on Johnny the Call Boy's program over WEAF Tuesday, at 8:00 p. m. The story was written by Max Marcini and will be directed by Jack Johnstone.

Johnny Green's "sliding strings" orchestra and vocalists including Floyd Sherman, Genevieve Rowe and Swing Fourteen will be heard in several numbers that include "I Know That You Know," "Poor Pinocchio's Nose," "The Masquerade Is Over," "Filles de Cadiz," and "I Have Eyes" and "Falling In Love With Love."

Zasu Pitts, fluttery voiced movie comedienne who made a guest appearance with Fibber (I Can Pick Em) McGee in Chicago last October, will be heard as his first Hollywood guest in the second broadcast of Fibber's new Hollywood Radio City series, Tuesday at 9:30 p. m., over WEAF.

Donald Novis, tenor, will sing, "Only A Rose" as his solo. The Four Notes will harmonize on "Sing For Your Supper" and the Orchestra, under Billy Mills, will play "Great Day" and "Zing Went the Strings of My Heart."

Supporting Zasu and Fibber will be Bill Thompson in his three-fold capacity as the Old Timer, Nick De Popolus and Horation K. Boomer; Harold Perry, Isabel (Mrs. Uppington) Randolph and Harlow Wilcox.

A variety of talent will be presented on the For Men Only program over WEAF Tuesday at 8:30 p. m. in interviews with Fred Ural, master of ceremonies.

The guests will include Alice Marble, women's singles tennis champion of the United States; Tom Howard and George Shelton, well known radio comedy team; Captain Tim Healy, authority on postage stamp collecting, and Arthur Menken, motion picture photographer.

The Benny Goodman Swing School will hold a seminar in Hartford, Conn., Tuesday night, at 9:30 p. m. on WABC with a dedicatory number to the Hot Clubs of America. "Rock, Church, Rock," a brand new com-

FLASHES OF LIFE

(By The Associated Press)
FISHER ISLAND, N. Y. — "Bring-'em-back-alive" Hibiscus, a giant cat owned by Henry L. Ferguson, has captured 150 cottontail rabbits—alive.

He carried them in his mouth uninjured to his owner. Ferguson said the cat, which weighs more than 16 pounds, began hunting the cottontails after its comrade, a pet rabbit owned by the Ferguson, died some time ago.

"It may be that he is trying to replace the pet rabbit," Ferguson said. "He kills rats, but never hurts a rabbit."

INDIANAPOLIS—Part of the congregation of a Negro Baptist church in the course of a squabble with the pastor asked Superior Judge Russell J. Ryan for an order restraining him from the pulpit.

The judge continued the case and told the members to choose a temporary pastor. They did. He preached his first sermon on the subject, "Hold your peace and the Lord will fight for you."

CHICAGO—The detective bureau press room phone rang.

"What," said a voice, "do you mean by calling me Hamburger Harry? My name's Henry."

Reporters scoffed, not believing the gunman police had nicknamed "Hamburger Harry" would be bold enough to call.

"So you think it's funny, eh? I'll stick up another place before 5 a. m.," said the voice.

At 4:35 a. m. a west side hamburger stand was held up by a gunman. The desk sergeant chalked up the robbery against "Hamburger Henry."

NEW HARMONY, Ind., — Truck drivers hauling nitroglycerine from Mattoon, Ill., into Indiana to shoot oil wells use deaths own trappings to keep death away.

Behind each truck with its load of 300 or more quarts of the explosive trails an ambulance or hearse — to make motorists in the rear keep their distance. The trucks travel slowly and only by night.

"The traffic law says you mustn't pass a funeral," Driver Steve Hobbs explained. "We don't break any speed records, but it's safe."

KANSAS CITY — A man strode up to the cigar stand in the main post-office lobby.

"Got a one-cent stamp?" he asked.

The clerk gulped, waved a hand at rows of stamp windows.

"Oh," the man said.

OMAHA, Neb. — Vincent Thillon, editor of the student newspaper at Creighton university, wanted a date for the junior-senior prom and being a bashful youth, he made known his desires in an editorial.

Thillon's plea for a companion brought a steady stream of calls from co-eds. But they weren't acceptances.

The callers protested against his using the editorial columns for dating purposes.
