Noted Zanies To Become Stars Of "Model Minstrel" Program

Drama Of Airlines Will Be Featured On Radio International Nights To Give Salute To France

Tom Howard and George Shelton, noted zanies, will become the stars of the "Model Minstrel" program heard over WABC Mondays at 8:30 p. m. They guest-starred while Pick and Pat, who leave the program after being heard on it for, five years, were vacationing, Rumor has Howard and Shelton signing for this series one day before they were offered the closing comedy spot on the Sunday night Don Ameche-Charley McCarthy hour from Hollywood. A drama of the airlines and the men and women who fly them with James Cagney, Stuart Erwin, Jeanne Cagney and leading' Mallory in roles will be the attraction in the Radio Theatre Monday. The play is "Ceiling Zero" and it will be broadcast over WABC at 9 p. m. with Cecil B. DeMille as producer. Cagney and Erwin play the role of pilots on an airline and the play follows them thru the air and on the ground. Behind the drama of night flying, fog and crackups is a story of cla-hing personalities. Unusual angle oi. the Theatre production is that three members of the Cagney family are involved. Jimmy stars and featured roles are his sister, Jean-ne, and his sister-in-law, Boots Mallory. A musical salute to France will he presented by Opal Craven, the Lady, the Continental Lullaby Quartet and Marek Weber and his symphony for the first jazz con-orchestra during the Contented cert ever given in America. And Monday at 10:00 p. m. meurt." and a medley from Cavalcade of America dramatization. Thomas' "Mignon." The Contition, to be broadcast Monday at 8 nental Quartet will be featured in Moretti's "Mon petite Tom." and Columbia Broadcasting System.
