

ews and P

Cage Team, Air Tonight; Aired at 6

The sports world takes over the airways tonight with four broadcasts. Station WIBA will air the Badger-Penn State boxing match at 6:30 p. m. and the Wisconsin-Chicago basketball game at 8. The Santa Anita $100,000 Handicap will be broadcast at 6 through station WBBM. A resume of the intercollegiate indoor track meet through station WCFL at 9.

Other topnotch programs for tonight follow, classified:

6 p. m.—Scandinavian Music (WIBA): folk songs . . . Red Foley's Revue (WMAQ): the "two Reds."

6:30 p. m. — Joe E. Brown (WBBM): the search for "Miss Innocence."

7 p. m.—Tommy Riggs and Betty Lou (WMAQ): Martha Raye, gueststars . . . Johnny Presents (WBBM): O. Henry's "The Cop and the Anthem." . . . Forum (WIND) symposium on the "American Foreign Policy."

7:30 p. m. — Fred Waring (WMAQ): two new tunes aired.

8 p. m.—Barn Dance (WLS): hayloft minstrel show . . . Vox Pop (WMAQ): a survey on opinion.

9 p. m. — NBC Symphony (WIBA, WMAQ): Hans Steinberg, conductor. Program: "Symphony No. 4 in E Major" by Bruckner, "Fireworks Fantasy" by Stravinsky, "The Sorcerer's Apprentice" by Dukas, and "Emperor" Waltz by Strauss . . . Hit Parade (WBBM): Lanny Ross swings two new pieces.

9:15 p. m. — Dance Parade (WGN): four and a-half hours of music.

10:30—NBC Tapestry of Melody