

nation nday; y Tonight

The coronation of Pope Pius XII will be broadcast early Sunday from St. Peter's cathedral in Vatican City by stations of the National Broadcasting Co., the Columbia Broadcasting system, and the Mutual Broadcasting system.

Broadcasting will begin at 1 a. m. through NBC-WMAQ-WENR; at 1:30 a. m. through CBS-WBBM and MBS-WGN, and at 2:30 a. m. through NBC-WIBA.

Tonight's outstanding radio fare, classified:

Dramatic

6:15 p. m.—Lum and Abner (WBBM): give degree to Jack Benny.

7 p. m.—First Nighter (WBBM): "Bullets in the Night."

8 p. m.—Playhouse (WBBM): "The Glass Key."

8:30 p. m.—Death Valley Days (WMAQ): "Women Beat the Devil" . . . March of Time (WENR): starts ninth year.

9 p. m.—Curtain Time (WGN): "Frontier" . . . Grand Central Station (WBBM): an actress and middle age.

9:30 p. m.—Bert Lytell (WENR): in "Today You Live."

◇ ◇ ◇

Variety

6:30 p. m.—Jack Haley (WBBM): with Joan Bennett, Lucille Ball, Virginia Verrill, Ted Fio-Rito.

8 p. m.—Plantation Party (WENR): with Louise Massey and the Westerners.

◇ ◇ ◇

Musical

8 p. m.—Waltz Time (WIBA, WMAQ): "Some Day I'll Find You," "Waltz of the Gypsies."

9:30 p. m.—Saturday's Opera (WIBA): highlights of "Rigoletto."

◇ ◇ ◇

Sports

10 p. m.—Boxing (WIND): White City bouts.

10:15 p. m.—Boxing (WGN): Golden Gloves bouts.

◇ ◇ ◇

Miscellaneous

10:10 p. m.—Madison Municipal Airport (WIBA): arrival and departure of night airmail and passenger plane.