

Barney Oldfield, Youthful Detective On 'We, The People'

Noted Foursome Will Reveal Their Secret Ambitions During Appearance On "If I Had The Chance" Spot

A seventeen-year old detective, the world's most famous automobile race driver, a man who sings in reverse, a tender-hearted constable and an eleven-year old girl who operates her own international post office will represent the highlights in a cross section of American life on Gabriel Heatter's "We, The People" broadcast over WABC Tuesday at 9:00 p. m.

Roy D. Bassette, Jr., of West Hartford, Conn., is chief of the Tri-Staté Detective Bureau. He organized his service in 1934 and his primary service is the protection of homes and yards from depredations of other boys. The other enterprising juvenile scheduled to visit Gabriel Heatter is eleven-year old Gloria Sileo, who is the niece of Cavio Sileo, chief photographer of International News Service. Caught in Spain when the revolution broke out, she returned to this country and now relays news and mail from her Spanish friends to their families.

Frank Buck, wild animal trainer; Frank Sullivan, humorist and writer; Nellie Revell, writer and NBC interviewer, and George Gowans, drummer with Guy Lombardo's orchestra, will reveal their secret ambitions during Cal Tenny's If I Had a Chance program Tuesday at 10:00 p. m., over WJZ.

Because of the sweet type of music played by Lombardo, Gowans claims that he has become a "Casper Milquetoast drummer." During the broadcast he is going to get his chance to go to town and he has promised to hit the drums so hard that the seismograph at Fordham university will register an earthquake.

Miss Revell will take part in a comedy sketch.

A girl who has been kissed over a million times in public, the first woman judge south of the Mason and Dixon line, and one of the three living survivors of the supposedly cursed expedition which opened King Tutankhamen's tomb, will relate their experiences during the Inside Story program at 8:00 p. m., Tuesday, over WJZ.

Tom Terriss, motion picture director, lecturer and professional world traveler, will tell the inside story of the "Egyptian Curse" which is said to have mysteriously snuffed out the lives of 12 of the 15 persons who took part in opening Tutankhamen's tomb. He was one of those present at the opening.

After forty years of living between the sublime and the ridiculous, Doctor Diogenes Rockwell, the celebrated brain-buster has solved what every man and woman wants to know — "How to Make a Million Dollars."

Full confession concerning the way of doing this without plans or blueprints will be broadcast Tuesday, from 9:30 to 10:00 p. m., over WJZ, when Doctor Rockwell's Brain Trust meets for its sixth session.

"I have investigated every ancient and modern scheme for making a million without getting jailed," said the Doctor, "and I have found but one formula that fits us today. For the sake of humanity I am passing it along to my radio audience next 'Choose-day' on the Blue net."

Benny Goodman will swing "Louise," when he comes to the mike Tuesday at 9:30 p. m. over WABC in a Caravan program broadcast from the stage of the Palace theatre in Akron, O. Martha Tilton's solo will be "Good For Nothin' but Love." An original number titled "Opus Three Quarters" written and played by the Benny Goodman quartet will be featured. Benny's anything-can-swing number will be "Golliwog Cake Walk." Johnny Mercer's contribution will be "Taint What You Do."

Spring comes officially to the Fibber McGee program a week later than it does on the calendar. Fibber will celebrate its advent Tuesday at 9:30 p. m. over WEAJ. Don Novis will sing "Deep Purple" and the Four Notes will harmonize on "Umbrella Man."

Moses Hart of the highly successful play-writing team of Kaufman and Hart will make his information Please debut on WJZ Tuesday at 8:30 p. m. His partner, George S. Kaufman, already has been thru the quizzing ordeal at the hands of Clifton Fadiman. Another guest expert, but not a newcomer, on the program will be Rex Stout, author of mystery stories, sitting with the regulars of the board, John Kieran and Franklin P. Adams.

Kaufman and Hart began their career as a writing team with the sensational "Once in a Lifetime," satirizing Hollywood, in 1932. Another big success was "You Can't Take It With You," which won the Pulitzer prize in 1938, and the film version of which won the Motion Picture Academy of Arts and Sciences Award this year. Their latest work, "The American Way" is playing at the Center theatre in New York, starring Fredric March and Florence Eldridge.
