

The Post Radio Highlights

Third episode in the dramatized presentation of "The Living God"—story of the events of Holy Week—with Pedro de Cordoba as the voice of Christ. Mary Carr and Walter Connolly—WMAL. 6 p. m.

Barry Fitzgerald—famed member of the Abbey Players cast of performers—is guest star on Kate Smith's show—WJSV. 8 p. m.

Nicolai Berezowsky conducts the "Sinfonietta" orchestra, playing Schubert's Symphony No. 6 in C Minor—WOL. 8:30 p. m.

Lionel Barrymore is guest on the "Good News of 1939" show, starring in a radio adaptation of "The Voice of Bugle Ann"—WRC. 9 p. m.

Subject of tonight's "Town Meeting of the Air" program is the question: "Can Europe Escape War Now?"—with Anne O'Hare McCormick speaking from Europe and, in New York, a quintet of international affairs experts and observers, including: Raymond Clapper, John Gunther, Raymond Gram Swing, Prof. Frederick Lewis Schuman of Williams College, and S. K. Ratcliffe—WMAL. 9:30 p. m.

Star of tonight's "Tune-Up Time" show is Judy Garland, playing the part of "Dorothy," heroine of "The Wizard of Oz" and—in addition—singing a medley of songs from four of her recent pictures—WJSV. 10 p. m.