

Rules Air; ton Stars erables'

Eastertide programs will dominate the airwaves tonight. In music, drama, and discussion the religious theme will prevail. A special Good Friday concert by the 58-year-old Lindsborg Messiah chorus will be heard for the first time. Excerpts from Handel's "Messiah" will be sung during the concert over WENR at 9 p. m.

Other Easter programs will be found in the classified listings which follow, along with the other outstanding programs for tonight:

Religious

7:30 p. m.—Good Friday Hour (WLS): the Rev. Fulton J. Sheen on "The Last Word" with music by the Paulist Choristers.

Dramatic

7 p. m.—Warden Lawes (WLS): "Screwball:" illogical procedure of the laws regarding insanity.

8 p. m.—Playhouse (WBBM): Walter Huston as Jean Valjean in "Les Miserables."

8:30 p. m.—Death Valley Days (WMAQ): "Ave Maria," an Eastertide story.

9 p. m.—Curtain Time (WGN): "Friday's Children" Grand Central Station (WBBM): "Double Exposure," a photographer's marital life.

Variety

6:30 p. m.—Jack Haley (WBBM): "Local Boy Makes Good," with Lucille Ball.

7:30 p. m.—Burns and Allen (WBBM): the Easter parade from Cro-Magnon days to the present through the eyes of "Stylist" Gracie Allen.

9:30 p. m.—Believe It or Not (WBBM): Gov. Lee O'Daniel of Texas presents the 9-year-old Perricone quadruplets.

Discussion

6:45 p. m.—Art Talk (WMAQ): Mrs. Frank G. Logan, art patroness, on "Sanity in Art."

Musical

7 p. m. — Lucille Manners (WIBA, WMAQ): an all-Easter program including "Agnus Dei" from Bizet's "L'Arlesienne" suite, "Easter Overture" by Rimsky-Korsakow, and Irving Berlin's "Easter Parade."

8 p. m.—Waltz Time (WIBA, WMAQ): "East Side of Heaven" and "I Can't Get You Out of My Mind."

9:30 p. m. — Vocal Varieties (WENR): light opera favorites, including "A Pretty Girl Is Like a Melody" and "Why Do I Love You."

10:15 p. m. — "Crucifixion" (WLW): Sir John Stainer's cantata.

10:30 p. m.—Brahms' "Requiem" (WIND): the choir of the All Angels church, New York, sings "Behold All Flesh," "How Lovely Is Thy Dwelling Place," and "Ye Now are Sorrowful" from the choral masterpiece.