

The Post Radio Highlights

Survey of choral music from ancient times to the present is presented by choirs from the public schools of San Francisco as the feature of today's "Our American School" broadcast—WMAL, 6 p. m.

Fred Allen delves into the innermost activities of night club life in a big city, when he interviews Barbara Sullivan—hat-check girl in Manhattan's "Stork Club"—on tonight's "Town Hall Tonight" show—WRC, 9 p. m.

Constance Bennett, svelte cinema actress, heads the cast in "Star Theater's" presentation of Ashmead Scott's original story, "District Nurse"—WJSV, 9 p. m.

Announcement of winners of the annual C. I. T. Safety Foundation awards for those "who have made important contributions to the cause of safety during 1938"—WMAL, 9:15 p. m.

Favorite waltz melody on the "99 Men and A Girl" show—picked by the listening audience—is "Tales from Vienna Woods." Hildgarde singing "Do You Love Me," "Who" and "Deep Purple"—WJSV, 10 p. m.