Radio Skit

Deems Taylor, noted music critic and commentator, will head the list of guests on Dave Elman's "Hobby Lobby" Wednesday, at 8:30 p. m. over WJZ.

Also on the program will be Freida "Honey" Feldman of Boston university, who spends her sparetime running a dating bureau; Carl Staudenmaier, of Pittsburgh, who rivals the Easter bunny by raising chickens that lay eggs with different colored shells, and Leo J. McDevitt, of Jamaica Plains, Mass., who, with two highschool classmates, operates his own radio station.

Deems Taylor's hobby is cabinet making and hand craft in wood. His work, according to critics, is extremely good and altho he has been offered large sums of money, he has never sold any of his objects d'art.

Miss Feldman, who goes by the nickname of "Honey," operates her hobby under the slogan of "If you want a honey, just call 'Honey'." She has already been responsible for fifteen engagements and two marriages, and all profits from her hobby she turns over to welfare organizations.

Fred Allen, who once studied law as a hobby, will be featured with the Mighty Allen Art Players in a burlesque legal drama titled "Ambulance Chases Allen" as the feature of his Town Hall Tonight broadcast Wednesday at 9:00 p. m. over WEAf.

Taking the role of Shyster McAllen, senior partner in the firm of Allen, McAllen and Allenson, Fred will chase ambulances via helicopter, motor-bike, scooter and short wave radio. Disaster overtakes jurist Allen when, after overtaking an ambulance, he finds that it is no ambulance at all but only Jimmy Fidler ringing bells on the way to a broadcast.

For contrast to his burlesque of Blackstone, Fred will present Portland Hoffa, Harry von Zell, the Merry Macs swing quartet featuring pretty Helen Carroll, the new Town Hall quartet directed by Lyn Murray, Peter Van Steeden and his Troubadours, and another "Person You Didn't Expect to Meet" in Sixty-eight members of the senior class of Trenton Central high school will visit Tommy Dorsey and his orchestra when the trombone maestro broadcasts from Radio City Wednesday.
