

actress who makes a living on her technique on Fred Allen's. Strangely enough, Miss Halliday has colds.

Use New Nazi Rule Tonight

Secretary of the Interior Ickes will release another barrage against the Nazi regime tonight when, at a dinner of the American Guild for German Cultural Freedom, he discusses the plight of the intellectual refugee. His address will be aired by station WENR at 9.

Other outstanding air features for tonight and Thursdaytime follow, classified:

Discussion

6:15 p. m.—Clean-Up Week (WIBA): Jerry Coulter on "The Clean-Up and the Home Premises."

8 p. m.—Chicago Town Meeting (WENR): arguments for and against socialized medicine.

Musical

7 p. m.—Armour Glee Club (WLS): annual recital.

Dramatic

7 p. m.—Gang Busters (WBBM): partnership in crime from murder to prison cell.

11 p. m.—Lights Out (WIBA, WMAQ): June Travis in "The Devil's Due."

Variety

7:30 p. m. — Tommy Dorsey (WMAQ): with Shirley Ross....

Hobby Lobby (WLS): Victor Moore collects fish-tales....

Paul Whiteman (WBBM): greeting the World's fair.

8 p. m. — Fred Allen (WMAQ): introducing the fair's forgotten man . . .

Star Theater (WBBM): Virginia Weidler in "Cathleen."

9 p. m. — 99 Men and a Girl (WBBM): "The Girl I Left Behind Me" or "The Spirit of '76."

9:30 p. m. — Muisic Counter (WGN): Three Men and A Maid . . .

It Can Be Done (WBBM): Gilbert E. Gable, builder of cities.

Miscellaneous

8 p. m.—You Prove It (WIBA): questions and answers, with Carl Seeliger, George Whitman, Harold Smith, Harold Freimund, Don Haugen, and Harvey Sacket.

Thursdaytime

1 p. m. — Legislative Forum (WHA): Assemblyman Paul R. Alfonsi on "The State Budget Bill."

2:30 p. m. — Concert Hall (WIND): Bethany College choir.

3:30 p. m.—Premiere (WENR): "Union Pacific" opening in Omaha, Neb.

4 p. m. — Choristers (WENR): Lebanon College Glee club.

5:30 p. m. — Radio Council (WENR): "The Student and His Community."

Other Stations Tonight