BULLETIN

The first formal diplomatic recognition of Adolf Hitler's demands, as stated in his reply to President Roosevelt's peace proposal, will be made Friday by Poland. Foreign Minister Joseph Beck will speak from Warsaw, delivering "Poland's Answer to Adolf Hitler." Stations WIBA and WMAQ will air the broadcast at 5 a. m. English interpolations will be made during the address, with a summary immediately afterward.

Alfred M. Landon tonight will make his first public address since attending the Pan-American conference early this year, and his speech before the General Conference Commission of World Peace of the Methodist Episcopal church will be broadcast at 7 by WENR. His subject will be "The Practical Aspect of a Peace Conference."
