

Double Bill On Screen At State; Lane Sister Starred

Gracie Allen Murder Mystery Showing At Ohio; Lincoln Story Featured At Quilna

"Yes, My Darling Daughter," a modern story of a very modern girl starring Priscilla Lane, Jeffrey Lynn, Fay Bainter, Roland Young and May Robson, opens Thursday on the State's double bill. Just how this girl thinks a modern romance should be conducted is the theme of this clever romantic comedy.

"Persons in Hiding," starring J. Carroll Naish, is the second State offering. This picture is taken from the records of J. Edgar Hoover.

A breathless beauty who battles a murder maniac is the role portrayed by Gracie Allen in the mystery comedy, "The Gracie Allen Murder Case," which is current at the Ohio. Warren William, Eileen Drew, Kent Taylor, Judith Barrett and Donald Meeks are in the supporting roles.

Tougher than ever, only this time on the side of the law, are the "little tough guys" who are currently seen in the pictures at the State. "Code of the Streets" stars Harry Carey and Frankie Thomas.

Queen of the "dumb doras" Marie Wilson stars in the second Sigma feature, "Sweepstakes Winner." As the title suggests, Miss Wilson is the winner of a large sum of money which promptly brings all the kypis to her side. Johnny Davis, Alden Jenkins and Charley Foy are among the supporting players.

Thursday and Friday are the last two days for the showing of the great story of Abe Lincoln at the Quilna. "Young Mr. Lincoln" tells the story of some of the events in the life of this great man when he was just getting his start in a law career. Abe Brady, Henry Fonda, Marjorie Weaver and Allen Whalen are among the stars featured in this picture. "Jesse James," the all technical drama of the life of one of the west's most colorful figures, is now at the Lyric. Tyrone Power is cast in the title role with Henry Fonda, Nancy Kelly and Randolph Scott in supporting roles.

"Ride a Crooked Mile" an unusual story starring Akim Tamiroff is the other Lyric feature.

Where Lincoln achieved his brilliant splitting rails, Fonda came by his working as a physical training instructor.

Several days devoted to testing Fonda in various passages of the original screen play by Lamar Trotti proved that Zanuck had been right again—Fonda was indeed the ideal man for the role.
