

Experts Friday Care Saturday

Speakers will be Arthur V. Newhall, executive of a tire company; Lt. Frank Kreml, Evanston, Ill., safety division director of the International Association of Chiefs of Police, and Sidney Williams, public safety director of the National Safety Council.

Tonight's radio headliners, classified:

Dramatic

7 p. m. — Peter Quill (WGN): foils Red Circle's subversive work among jobless.

7:30 p. m. — Death Valley Days (WMAQ): with Lone Bear, Indian singer, in story of the Navajos' long hair . . . First Nighter (WBBM): at new hour; "Safe in the Fold," romantic farce about newspaper business.

8 p. m.—1,001 Wives (WENR): "The Meddlesome Wife."

8:30 p. m.—Gems of American Eloquence (WGN): Daniel Webster's speech at Bunker Hill.

Musical

6 p. m.—Concert Hour (WIBA, WMAQ): patriotic medley, "Beautiful Lady," "Hora Staccato," "Dance of the Comedians," "I Love Louisa."

7 p. m.—Waltz Time (WIBA, WMAQ): "East Side of Heaven," "Grateful," "Gypsy Sweetheart," "Moonlight on the River."

Discussion

6:30 p. m.—Congressional Forum (WHA): Rep. Charles Hawks, Jr. (R., Wis.).

8:30 p. m.—Dane County Safety Council (WIBA): R. G. Botham, sales manager of Wisconsin Foundry and Machine co., on industry's view of Wisconsin's highway safety movement.

Variety

6:30 p. m.—Johnny Presents (WBBM): "The Perfect Crime" and music.

7 p. m. — Plantation Party (WENR): Duke of Paducah on Louis-Galento fight . . . Raymond Paige (WBBM): and Mary Martin.

8:45 p. m. — Horace Heidt (WMAQ): new series.

Miscellaneous

8:30 p. m.—Robert L. Ripley (WBBM): and two Texans who saved each other's lives under almost identical circumstances, but years apart.

Saturday

8:30 p. m. — Florence Hale (WMAQ): problems of National Education Assn. convention.

9 a. m.—American Art Quartet