

The Post Radio Highlights

From Aldershot, England, Edward R. Murrow, describes the first youths enrolled under the new conscription act—WJSV, 9:30 a. m.

Joseph Knitzer, young American violinist, is guest artist on the Columbia Concert Hall—WJSV, 10:30 a. m.

Professor David S. Muzzey of Columbia University talks on Child Education—WJSV, 11:15 a. m.

Ted Husing brings reports of the P. G. A. tournament—WJSV, 1:30-3, 3:30-4 p. m.

Dansk Vandrelaug, 55 young Danes hiking through America, give their impressions—WMAL 1:45 p. m.

Washington plays St. Louis—WJSV, 4 p. m.

From the Coliseum in Washington the Barn Dance enjoys a network broadcast—WOL, 8 p. m.

The Governor of Maine meets the Governor of Porto Rico on Vox Pop—WRC, 8 p. m.

A romance by Arch Oboler, "Three Brides" concerns a prizefighter and an anesthetic—WRC, 8:30 p. m.