

Cream of to Open N

The cream of the New York World's fair's entertainment possibilities is to be skimmed for Columbia network's new series, "Let's Go to the Fair," starting tonight and to be heard each Sunday at 8 p. m. over WBBM.

John S. Young, radio director of the fair, is to serve as master of ceremonies for the variety programs, first such entertainment series to come from the New York exposition.

Plans for the first show call for songs by Morton Downey, celebrated tenor now appearing in Billy Rose's "Aquacade" at the fair, and songs and tap dances by Bill Robinson, whose "Hot Mikado" is one of the entertainment highlights. Music is to be provided by the Tritons, official World's fair symphonic band, under the direction of Joseph Littau.
