

Templeton Hour Will Offer Wide Range Of Music Fare

Blind Pianist To Do "Blues" And Operatic Numbers; Unusual Talent Set For Quiz Programs

Versatile Alec Templeton's musical tricks in his WEAF broadcast Tuesday at 8:30 p. m., will range from blues songs to grand opera.

Singing with his own accompaniment, he will offer "Snow White Rhapsody," his version of "Hi, Ho." Then he will do "Ave Maria" as it might sound with a tenor singing it over short wave, following with a demonstration of a laughing piano. His versions of big-name orchestra styles will include those of Shep Fields, Eddy Duchin, Ted Lewis and Louis Armstrong. His final number will be a "Swingphony" arrangement of "Limehouse Blues."

Billy Mills' orchestra will be heard in a medley including two Rodgers and Hart hits, "Blue Room" and "The Girl Friend." Edna Odell's songs will include "And the Angels Sing" and "This Can't Be Love."

A fishing authority, a double-talker and a cartoonist make up the unique trio to be interviewed by Mort Lewis on "If I Had the Chance" over the NBC-Blue network Tuesday at 9 p. m. Those to reveal their secret ambitions are S. Kip Farrington, an editor of Field and Stream and Izaak Walton expert; Cliff Nazario, whose garbled wordage is familiar to radio fans, and Walter Berndt, creator of the daily newspaper syndicated comic strip, "Smitty."

The new Andie Kostelanetz tune, "Moon Love," which is one of the "Hit Parade" selections, will be played by Johnny Green and his orchestra as a highlight of the "Johnny Presents" program over WEAF Tuesday at 7 p. m. Other numbers include "Don't Look Now," "Cinderella Stay in My Arms," "Stairway to the Stars" and "Louisiana Hayride." Vocalists are Floyd Sherman and the Swing Fourteen. The dramatic part of the air embraces another in "The World's Greatest Stories" series adapted by Max Marcis.

Information from half a mile below the surface of the ocean will be on apt when the Information Please program goes on the air Tuesday with Dr. Wilham Beebe, distinguished scientist and hero of the bathysphere submarine excursions, as a guest expert.

Another visitor will be Clarence Budington Kelland, author of best sellers, who has appeared before to help the regulars of the board, John Kieran and Franklin P. Adams. The program will be broadcast over WJZ at 7:30 p. m.

Dr. Beebe has been curator of ornithology of the New York Zoological society since 1899. He also is director of the society's department of scientific research, author

BEST BETS TUESDAY

P. M.

- 6:00—Fred Waring Time, WEAF.
- 6:30—Second Husband, WABC.
- 7:00—Johnny Presents, WEAF.
- 7:00—Inside Story, WJZ.
- 7:30—Dick Powell and His Party, WABC.
- 8:00—Artie Shaw and Orchestra, WJZ.
- 8:30—A. Templeton, WEAF.
- 8:30—Eop Crosby's Orchestra, WABC.
- 9:00—Hal Kemp Orchestra, WABC.

of many books on scientific subjects and member of a list of learned societies long enough to awe even the experts.

The only woman steeplejack in the world, a man who bought a grocery store for a package of cigarets, the bookkeeper who formed a commuters' band, a woman who sailed a 90-foot ketch around the world with the aid of a sextant and a book on navigation, and a youngster who supports a family of five by singing in contests will relate their experiences on Gabriel Heatter's "We, The People," Tuesday over WABC at 8:00 p. m., EDST.

Lonesome without her steeplejack-husband, Mrs. Charles Miner resigned from the role of a housewife and became the world's only feminine steeplejack so she could work side-by-side with her husband. Miner also will appear on the program.

Charles E. Gray walked into a grocery store in Pensacola, Fla., for a pack of cigarets and the storekeeper gave him the store instead. Mrs. Marion Rice Hart started around the world in a

STATIONS THAT MAKE UP THE NETWORKS

TUESDAY, JULY 18
Eastern Standard—Subtract One Hr.
for CST, 2 Hrs. for MT—P. M.