

ews and P

lharmonic lds Aia onight

Again a Grant park concert holds the spotlight on the airwaves. Tonight the Chicago Philharmonic orchestra under the direction of Richard Czerwonky will be heard featuring Guilmant's "Symphony D. Minor," Rimsky-Korsakov's "The Russian Eater," and Ponchielli's "Cielo e mar" from La Giaconda. Stations WENR and WIND air the concert at 8 o'clock.

Other highlights for tonight follow, classified:

Musical

6 p. m. — Lucille Manners (WIBA, WMAQ): songs and another old story.

Sports

7:30 p. m. — Sports League (WIBA): more fishing prizes awarded.

9:15 p. m.—Suburban Sports Parade (WIBA): Joe Dommerschausen of The Journal presents the latest All-Star Popularity poll returns.

Dramatic

7:30 p. m. — First Nighter (WBBM): "The Swan Dance."

Discussion

8:30 p. m.—Sen. Robert Reynolds (WMAQ): a discussion on "Debtors and Aggressors." . . . Safety Council (WIBA): Walter BJORKE, assistant district attorney, explains the county's safety record from the viewpoint of enforcement officials.

Variety

6:30 p. m. — Johnny Presents (WBBM): Johnny Green plays "Comes Love."

7 p. m.—Waltz Time (WIBA, WMAQ): potpourri of new and old themes . . . Raymond Paige (WBBM): Evelyn Case, songstress, is the "girl of the week."

8:30 p. m. — Bob Ripley (WBBM): a tour of the Odditorium . . . Promenade (WGN): featuring Leola Turner, soprano, and Wesley Summerfield, tenor.

Saturdaytime

Highlights feature on the Saturdaytime etherwaves is the Arlington Classic in the afternoon. Broadcast of the event will start at 3:30 p. m. with a description over WBBM; stations WIBA and WMAQ will aid the procession at 3:45 p. m. while all stations, including WIND, will air the race at 4:05 p. m.

Other highlights for Saturdaytime include:

9 a. m. — Chautauqua concert (WMAQ): the symphony orchestra under the direction of Albert Stoessel will feature Dvorak's "Indian Lament." . . . Dorian String Quartet (WIND): works of Daniels, Ives, and Gruenberg.

9:15 a. m. — Meet Chicago (WBBM): men over forty.

10:15 p. m.—Women in World (WBBM): service in education.

3 p. m.—National Band Concert (WMAQ, WIBA): Leidzen's "Nordic March," and Sousa's "Looking Upward" highlighted.

4 p. m.—Kindergarten (WIBA, WMAQ): melodrama by Daisy Dean called "The Firefly who Fell in Love with the Searchlight."

5 p. m.—Americans at Work (WBBM): the tugboat captain explains.

2:00—NBC Club Matinee