

ews and F

. . . .

f Cheyenne lebration ht's Airlanes

The old west will be relieved tonight when station WIBA airs the Cheyenne Frontiers Days celebration at 10:30. The purpose of the event is to honor the men who helped build the west in the colorful 1849-period. A dramatization based on the lives of Kit Carson and Jim Bridger will highlight the broadcast.

Other outstanding programs tonight include:

6:30 p. m.—Prof. Quiz (WBBM): a 71-year old woman competes

... Peace and Democracy (WIBA): continuing the discussions . . .

Red Skelton (WMAQ): "My Little Buckaroo."

7 p. m.—Barn Dance (WLS): going dude ranching for a vacation . . .

Scandinavian Hour (WIBA): old and new folk tunes and dances.

7:30 p. m.—Arch Obler Play (WIBA, WMAQ): "The Ugliest Man in the World," a repeat performance starring Raymond Johnson, Betty Calne and Ann Shepherd.

8 p. m. — Benny Goodman (WBBM): with Bert Parks and Louise Tobin vocal powers supplementing the jiving.

8:30 p. m.—Grant Park Concert (WBBM): Carl Hohengarten orchestra is in the bandshell.