

Dramatic Actress To Team Up With Ameche In Comedy

Ida Lupino To Be Another Guest; Radio Players And Technicians Will Match Wits Sunday Night

Barbara Jo Allen, dramatic actress and creator of the highly nervous character Vera Vague, will do a comedy spot with Don Ameche on the Charlie McCarthy hour over WEAJ Sunday, at 7 p. m. For more than seven years Miss Allen has been heard in the role of Beth Holly in the popular dramatic serial One Man's Family. Ida Lupino of the films will be another guest, acting in a play with Don Ameche. Charlie McCarthy, of course, will have a lot to say to both lovely ladies.

Five young radio actresses will play new roles before the microphone when they are matched against as many NBC sound effects technicians in Paul Wing's Spelling Bee, Sunday. The actresses to be heard on the program over WEAJ at 4:30 p. m., are Clare Hazel, Joan Tetzl, Mary Frances Carden, Elizabeth Russell and Rosalind Roulston. The sound effects men: Ray Kelly, Jack Houseknecht, Edward Blairney, Keene Crockett and Alfred Scott.

"The Lady Is Poison," a radio play of action and comedy by Borden Chase, will be the Hollywood playhouse production of Sunday, with Jim Ameche and Gale Page in the roles of cab driver and countess. In the play, to be heard over WJZ at 8:00 p. m., the leading characters become entangled in gang warfare.

Br'er Rabbit in the briar patch had nothing on harum scarum Henry Aldrich who lands in a berry patch, a drainage ditch and almost in jail during "the Aldrich Family" broadcast over WEAJ Sunday, at 6:00 p. m.

Henry, the pride of the Aldrich clan who has more troubles than a politician has platforms, will, perforce, go with his pal and comrade in mischief, Dizzy, to the Hanford farm to work out the damage caused by their thoughtless borrowing of Mr. Hanford's carefully picked berries. However, he gets sidetracked by a clue which he thinks will lead to the whereabouts of the drain tile stolen from his father by racketeers. In the end, Henry will find himself in a whirl and all mixed up.

The Tune Twisters, who were featured in a summer radio series with Jane Froman two seasons back will rejoin the songstress as a regular feature of the Musical Playhouse with Jan Peerce and Erno Rapee beginning Sunday, over WABC at 6:30 p. m.

The novel trio will make its de-
