

Jews and

Ambers

at Title Bout

Tonight

A blow-by-blow description of Henry Armstrong's defense of his lightweight crown against Lou Ambers heads the airwaves tonight. Station WENR will broadcast the fight at 8 p. m. with Sam Taub reporting the action and Bill Stern making between-rounds comment.

Other outstanding attractions for tonight and Wednesdaytime follow, classified:

Sports

7:30 p. m.—Baseball (WGN, WIND): White Sox vs. New York Yankees.

Discussion

6:30 p. m.—Information Please (WLS): H. Napier Moore, Canadian editor, becomes an "expert."

8:30 p. m.—Kaltenborn in Europe (WBBM): the outlook from London.

Dramatic

6:30 p. m.—Lightning Jim (WGN): victims of kidnapers.

7:30 p. m.—True Time (WENR): "One Month to Live," from an invalid to a healthy young woman through surgery.

8 p. m.—Mr. District Attorney (WIBA, WMAQ): outwitting the loan sharks.

Variety

6 p. m.—Johnny Presents (WMAQ): Guy De Maupassant's "The Confession" (on WIBA at 9:30 p. m.).

7:30 p. m.—The Northerners (WGN): medley from "The Wizard of Oz." . . . Alex Templeton (WIBA, WMAQ): Englishman's version of "Begin the Beguine" and Fats Waller's "Rigoletto."

. . . Bob Crosby (WBBM): introducing "Smarty Pants," by Johnny Mercer.

8 p. m.—Hal Kemp (WBBM): anniversary program.

8:30 p. m.—Dog House (WMAQ): the prison puppy needs to be soothed.

Miscellaneous

6 p. m.—Human Adventure (WBBM): "two people can live as cheaply as one" theory supported with scientific evidence.

7 p. m.—We, the People (WBBM): Lou Nova, Jim Thorpe, and Gloria Jean, 12, Deanna Durbin's successor, interviewed . . .

Battle of Sexes (WMAQ): Army men vs. Daughters of America.

Wednesdaytime

10:30 a. m.—National Farm and Home Hour (WIBA, WMAQ): discussion of fresh fruits and vegetables from New York.

12:30 p. m.—Farm Program (WHA): daily resume from the Wisconsin State fair in Milwaukee.

1 p. m.—Legislative Forum (WHA): Assemblyman Anthony Gruszka on "Democratic Government."