

Kostelanetz Arranges Fine Program For Monday Night

"Snow White" Medley And Sections Of Gershwin's "Porgy And Bess" Planned For "Tune Up Time" Hour

A medley of "Snow White" airs and a concert arrangement of some of the best-loved tunes from Gershwin's "Porgy and Bess" will be presented by Maestro Andre Kostelanetz and his 45-piece orchestra on the Monday broadcast at 7 p. m. over WABC of "Tune-Up Time," which will also feature its regular solists, Tony Martin, David Laughlin and Kay Thompson.

Tony Martin, who handles the dual role of master-of-ceremonies and baritone soloist, will open the broadcast with a gay salute entitled "Comes Love," and later in the program will offer "Day In—Day Out," a currently popular tune particularly suited to the romantic Martin personality and voice.

Roscoe Turner, ace speed pilot of the age, and third-time winner of the Thompson Trophy classic at the recent National Air Races in Cleveland will be heard in a guest appearance on the broadcast.

Finishing 10 miles ahead of his nearest competitor, Colonel Turner, won the 1939 Thompson Trophy in his aluminum Turner-Laird, with a speed of 282.536 miles an hour. The colorful Colonel, an outstanding showman of the flying world, insists that his recent victory marks the end of his 12-year racing career.

Dinah Shore, 22-year-old Nashville, Tenn., girl who sang on a New York local station for almost a year before being discovered by a network, will be guest soloist on the Tommy Riggs Quaker party Monday, 7 p. m., over WEA. Miss Shore, a guest recently on the Magic Key program, will sing "Crazy Moon" for Tommy and Betty Lou. Freddie Rich's orchestra will provide the musical background for the half-hour program and more adventures of Betty Lou will be the drama feature.

Jessica Dragonette, famed NBC songstress who has returned to the air after a two-year's absence, will head the cast of the Magic Key of RCA program, Monday at 9 p. m., over WJZ. The broadcast also will feature Bert Shefter, NBC pianist, in the first performance of his new composition, "Tramming at the Fair," which has its motif the sound made by electric cart horns at the World's Fair.

Cliff Nazarro, double-talk comedian, will share the role of Magic Key jester with Colonel Stoopnagle and LeRoy Miller. Music will be provided by the Victor Concert orchestra, under the direction of Nathaniel Shilkret, and Gray Gordon and his Tie Toe band.

Participating in the capture of Slade and Slaughter, notorious gangsters who terrorized the west at the turn of the century was Tex O'Rourke's most thrilling experience. The noted fight promoter and manager will relate the incidents of the recapture during the Order of Adventurers meeting on Monday at 7 p. m. over WJZ. Arthur L. Burton, whose quick-wittedness prevented a massacre at the hands of the Japanese army, and Admiral Richard E. Byrd, intrepid explorer, also will occupy the Marco Polo Chair and tell of their adventures. O'Rourke and Burton were scheduled originally to appear on a previous Order of Adventurers broadcast.
