

Alice Marble To Be Guest On Information Please Hour

Versatile Tennis Queen To Match Wits With Kieran And Adams; Scout Leaders, Wives To Be Heard

The versatile Alice Marble, not content with being a champion tennis player and a night club singer, is going to attempt to qualify as an expert when she appears with Clifton Fadiman on the Information Please program, Tuesday. Miss Marble's latest diversion will be heard over WJZ at 7:30 p. m., EDST.

Miss Marble who recently concluded a successful singing engagement in a New York night club, will match wits with those two super experts John Kieran and Franklin P. Adams. The other guest will be Bernard Jaffee, writer on scientific subjects, who has proved himself more than a match for Fadiman in past encounters on Information Please.

Boy Scout executives and their wives will compete for honors on the Frank Crumit and Julia Sanderson Battle of the Sexes program, Tuesday, over WEAJ from 8 to 8:30 p. m., The husband and wife teams will include the Olan H. Blacks of Monroe, La.; R. A. Hendersons of Flint, Mich.; S. S. Merrells of Arlington, Mass., and the C. F. Uriffers of Reading, Pa.

Pietro Di Donato, Brooklyn bricklayer-author, will tell how he realized his ambition to write when he is interviewed by Mort Lewis on the If I Had the Chance program, Tuesday, at 9 p. m., over WJZ. Di Donato's first book is "Christ In Concrete," current best-seller and Book-Of-The-Month club choice. Tony Martin, screen star; Louis Calhern, of motion picture and stage fame, and Bob Crosby, orchestra leader, also will appear on the program. Conrad Thibault will be heard in vocal interludes.

A departure from swingin' the swing will be introduced by the Bobcats on the Bob Crosby program Tuesday at 8:30 p. m. over WABC, when the eight specialists swing an old favorite, "Till We Meet Again." Crosby's vocal solo will be "Lilacs in the Rain" and Helen Ward will sing "Over the Rainbow." Band numbers include "Struttin' With Some Barbecue" and "Louise, Louise." The program will conclude with "Bugle Call Rag."

How smugglers have succeeded in getting bootleg "Black Money" out of Germany will be described by L. F. Gittler, American student who attended the University of Berlin, during the Inside Story program, Tuesday over WJZ, at 7:00 p. m., EDST. Other inside stories will reveal the current trend of women's fashions as foretold by Tappe, famous designer of wedding gowns, and 1939 grid-iron prospects, as discussed by Norman Sper, football prognosticator.

Johnny Green and his band will feature "Melancholy Mood," "I'm Sorry For Myself" and "Sometimes I'm Happy" during the Johnny Presents program Tuesday from 7:00 to 7:30 p. m., over WEAJ. Other selections include "No, Momma, No," "Just A Little Love, A Little Kiss," "Jumpin' Jive," "Tea for Two" and "Over the Rainbow," with Genevieve Rowe, Floyd Sherman, baritone, and the Swing Fourteen doing the
