

Today's Radio Highlights

Gordon Hittenmark whips into that golf tournament he has threatened during his early morning broadcasts—WRC, 12:45 p. m.

Washington-St. Louis baseball game—WJSV, 3 p. m.

Prof. Quiz has promised not to ask "Where's the Fire," when Police Patrolman Murphy appears for his Battle of Wits—WJSV, 6:30 p. m.

Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins acts as today's news commentator, substituting for Fulton Lewis, jr.—WOL, 7 p. m.

The First Nighter dramalet is "One More Summer," featuring Barbara Luddy and Les Tremayne in the roles of an innkeeper's daughter in a foreign land and her student-scientist lover—WJSV, 8:30 p. m.

Lou Nova and Tony Galento meet in the Municipal Stadium, Philadelphia, for their postponed fight, the winner of which is scheduled to meet heavyweight champion Joe Louis later in the season (if Bob Pastor doesn't beat him next Wednesday!—WMAL, 9 p. m.

"Hellzapoppin" when "Believe It or Not" Ripley hides his microphone behind a backdrop at New York's Winter Garden Theater to pick up some of the mad doings of Olsen and Johnson in the hit musical—WJSV, 9:30 p. m.

Col. Charles A. Lindbergh speaks on "American and European Wars" over the network of the Mutual Broadcasting System—WOL, 9:45 p. m.