

ews and P

es Return Radio Shows ange Nears

With the end of daylight savings time approaching, the networks continue to replace the "fill-in" summer programs. Tonight, the Columbia chain adds two more programs to its winter schedule.

At 6 p. m. "Big Town" resumes its battle against the underworld. Edward G. Robinson will be assisted by Ona Munson in the first episode which results in a break-up of a fake auction ring.

Immediately following "Big Town," at 6:30 p. m., Walter O'Keefe opens his new "Tuesday Night Party" program. Sophie Tucker, "red-hot mama" vocalist, is guestar. Both programs will be heard through CBS-WBBM in this area.

Other outstanding programs for tonight and Tuesdaytime follow, classified:

Discussion

6:30 p. m.—Information Please (WLS): P. Hal Sims, expert at bridge, billiards, trap shooting, poker, and golf, becomes a true "expert."

Variety

6 p. m. — Johnny Presents (WMAQ): the two Johnnies in duets. On WIBA at 9:30.

8 p. m. — Time to Shine (WBBM): introducing a new tune.

8:30 p. m. — Dog House (WMAQ): moaning from the mut's hut.

Musical

8:30 p. m.—The Northerners (WGN): popular ballads.

10 p. m.—Music as Desired (WENR): Eppcjeromo's cello concerto in B flat major.

Miscellaneous

7 p. m. — We, the People (WBBM): Charles Roberts, band-leader, and Robert Payson, director, tell stories . . . Battle of Sexes (WMAQ): bank tellers vs. clerks.

8:30 p. m. — Inside Stories (WENR): Alice Marble, tennis queen, Benny Finkle, boxing mystic, and George Seldes, war correspondent, relate experiences.

Wednesdaytime

10:30 a. m.—National Farm and Home Hour (WIBA, WMAQ): John Carmody of the Farm Security Administration discusses "Farm Debt Adjustment."

1 p. m. — Legislative Forum (WHA): Assemblyman Harry J. Gerquist (P., Rhinelander) on