

Alec Templeton as Time Charmer More New Programs

With the return to standard time, the airwaves are continuing to add new programs. Tonight at 8:30 over WIBA and WMAQ Alec Templeton, blind parodist, mimic, and pianist inaugurates his weekly half-hour show. Templeton will play host each week to a guest star. Donald Dickson, baritone is lead-off man on the list.

Other outstanding programs for tonight and Tuesdaytime follow, classified:

Variety

7 p. m.—Tommy Riggs and Betty Lou (WMAQ): Lois Ravel, contralto, guest star . . . Tune-Up Time (WBBM): a Brazilian samba and a new Hoagy Carmichael tune introduced.

7:30 p. m.—Minstrels (WBBM): question-barrage.

Sports

9 p. m. — Conn-Beltina fight (WENR): the 15-round return bout for the world light heavy-weight championship.

Dramatic

8 p. m. — Radio Theater (WBBM): Ginger Rogers and George Brent in "She Married Her Boss."

9:30 p. m.—Blondie (WBBM): a cousin visits.

Musical

7:30 p. m. — Margaret Speaks (WMAQ): "Connais Tu le Pays" from Thomas' "Mignon" highlighted.

9 p. m. — Contented Hour (WIBA, WMAQ): musical salute to Hawaii.

9:30 p. m. — Pageant of Melody (WGN): salute to the American Legion.

11 p. m. — Music as Desired (WENR): selections from "Die Walkure."

Miscellaneous

7 p. m. — Order of Adventurers (WLS): Mrs. Tex O'Reilly discusses her husband, a soldier of fortune.

Tuesdaytime

11:45 a. m. — American Legion (WIND): description of annual convention parade in Chicago. Also on at 12:35 p. m. WGN and 5 p. m. WMAQ.

1 p. m. — Legislative Forum (WHA): William J. Sweeney (D.,