Rudy Vallee Ends Radio's Longest Series With Program Tonight

Rudy Vallee will end the longest sponsored series in the history of radio with his broadcast at 7 tonight on NBC-WMAQ. He has been on the air for the same sponsor 10 years. The final show will have Jimmy Durante, Lou Holtz, and Carmen Miranda as guests.

The night that writes "finis" to Vallee's series will bring the return of Bing Crosby. He'll rejoin the Music Hall on WIBA-WMAQ at 9, with Jackie Cooper and Bobby Riggs as guests. The cast will include, as usual, Bob Burns, Pat Friday, and John Scott Trotter's orchestra.

Tonight's Good News of 1940 (on WIBA-WMAQ at 8) will present Walter Huston in a portion of "The Barker," whose title role he played 221 times on Broadway. Fanny Brice and Connie Boswell will be there, too.
