Dead End Kids To Be Heard In Radio Drama On Friday

Tough Lads From New York Set As Guests On Kate Smith Hour; Betty Grable To Swap Talk With Georgie Jessel

The Dead End Kids, those six New York inoppets who coared to Broadway then Hollywood fame by being their xery own tough little selves, will be guests of Kate Smith in her full-hour program with Abbott and Costello, the Kate Smith Singers, Parker Fennelly and Arthur Alien in "Snow Village" and Jack Miller's orchestra over WABC Friday, at 8:00 p. m.

In their appearance with Kate, the Dead End Kids will perform in an original drama by Norman Corwin, ace CBS writer, in character with "Dead End," "Augels With Dirty Faces" and other plays in which they have appeared as a group. Huntz Hall, Gabriel Dell, Leo Gorcey and Bernard Punsley-all of the boys with the exception of Billy Halop and Bobby Jordan—will appear on the Kate Smith Hour.

"Down in the Forest" from Ron-ald's "A Cycle of Life" will be sung by Lucille Manners, so-prano, and Ross Graham, bariprano, and Ross tone, Friday night.

Atone, Friday night.

Miss Manners also will sing Kreisler's "The Old Refrain," Valverde's "Clavelitos" and Romberg's "Romance." "Be Still My Heart" will be Graham's solo. The ensemble will open the broadcast, at 8:00 p. m., over WEAF with "New Sun in the Sky." Dr. Black will conduct the orchestra in Infante's "El Ritmo," Herbert's "Indian Summer" and the Overture to Strauss's "Die Fledermaus." The chorus will be heard in Greig's The chorus will be heard in Greig's "Landsighting" and the cosemble in selections from Lebar's "The Merry Widow," Grantland Rice's football forecase will round out football forecase will round out the full-hour broadcast.

Betty Grable, who left St. Louis at the age of 14 to study dancing in Los Angeles and has since be-come one of Hollywood's most popular actresses, will drop in for a chat with George Jessel on his Celebrity Program Friday. Miss Grable recently completed a per-sonal appearance tour with a his y. Miss a per-wit sonal appearance to ur with Frankie Masters' orchestra. Dur-ing the interview, at 9:30 p. m., over WEAF, she will recall high-lights in her singing and dancing lights A.

"A Table in a Corner." recent song hit by fura Sucess, composer of "My Silent Love" and other successes, will, be featured by Frank Munn, tener, on the Waltz Time program Friday. And the corner time, "To Love or by the corner time, "To Love or by the corner by the other successes, will be featured by Frank Munn, tener, on the Waltz Time program Friday. Another current time, "To Love or Not to Love" also will be sung by Munn over the WEAF at 9:00 p.m. Abe Lymon and his orchestin will play Frimi's "Give Me (ine Hour," "Laverne Waltz," "Fill Sec You Again" from Coward's "Dittersweet" and Linghe's "Unfoquited Love," The chorus will be heard in "You and Your Love" and "Your Eyes Have Told Me So." and Nous was Have

and Me So."

The outstanding football game to be played in Northern Onio
this season, between Notre Dame and Navy, will be broadcast by WTAM Saturday beginning, at

BEST BETS FRIDAY

P. M.

Fred Waring, Time. WEAF.

7:30 -- Professor Quiz, WABC.

3:00 - Lucille Manners Concert, WEÁF.

8:00 Kate Smith Variety Hour, WARC

9:00 --- Abe Lyman Waltzes. WEAR!

9:00 Johnny Présents, WABC.

9:30 - Georga Jessel's Guests, WEAF.

SATURDAY FOOTBALL

1:45 --- Pitrdue 4.6 Michigan

State, WOWO, 2:00 - Notre Dame

WLW. 2:45 Ohio State University vs.

University of Minnesota. WOSU.

1:45 p. m. The game will be described by Tom Manuing, WTAM sport announcer, assisted by Bob Dailey, and will be broadcast from the Cleveland Stadium.

The Mayokuks, father and mother and four little Mayokuks with parkas and dog-team will meet the Order of Adventurers Friday, at 8 p. m., in a broadcast over WJZ. Of the 33,000 Eskimos in the world, the six are the sole representatives of their race in the United States. They will be introduced to the radio audience by Colonel Theodore Roosevelt. Roy Chapman Andrews, Lowell Therias and Commander The Mayokuks, father Lowell Thomas and Felix Reisenberg. Coininander

New business opportunities New business opportunities resulting from research work by the housing division of the J. B. Plerce Foundation will be discussed by Robert L. Pavisus, not the division, in a radio interview on Friday, Davison will be interviewed over WEAF at 10:30 p. m., by Dr. Willard Thoroc, economic advisor to the Secretary of Commerce. The breakless will be the final in the current Business Frontiers series.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 20

Eastern Standard-Subtract One Hr. for CST. 2 mrs. for MT-P. M.

ICE a specific to the following terms of the E-100—Totally of