

11 Games Madison Area Saturday

Six football games will be broadcast Saturday by stations heard regularly in the Madison area. The schedule:

Notre Dame vs. Army—
12:15 p. m., WJJD; 12:25 p. m., eastern NBC stations; 12:40 p. m., WMAQ; 1 p. m., WIBA.

Purdue vs. Iowa—1:45 p. m., WLW.

Alabama vs. Kentucky—
1:45 p. m., eastern NBC stations; 3 p. m., WENR; at conclusion of Army-Notre Dame, WIBA.

Michigan vs. Illinois—1:45 p. m., WGN.

Nebraska vs. Missouri—2:30 p. m., KMOX.

Northwestern vs. Minnesota—1:30 p. m., WCFL; 1:55 p. m., WBBM; 2 p. m., WCCO.

Tonight's headline attractions, classified:

Dramatic

8:30 p. m. — First Nighter (WBBM): "Finders Keepers."

Music

(Serious and Popular)

6 p. m.—Fred Waring (WMAQ): "Grand Rapids Lancers."

7 p. m.—Concert Hour (WIBA, WMAQ): Lucille Manners, others; "Beautiful Blue Danube," "Since I First Met Thee," "Some Day," "Sylvia," "Dance of the Comedians," plus Grantland Rice and Elmer Layden.

8 p. m.—Waltz Time (WIBA, WMAQ): "Last Night," "Our First Kiss," "Love Passes By," "In a Monastery Garden," "South of the Border."

9:30 p. m.—Young Man With a Band (WBBM): Gene Krupa.

Discussion

6:15 p. m.—American Municipal Assn. (WENR): Earl D. Mallory summarizes convention.

8:30 p. m.—Dane County Safety Council (WIBA): Dr. Phillip Halperin on "Highway Safety and the Doctor."

Special Events

9:30 p. m.—Girl Scout Week (WIND): Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., Paul Whiteman, Lanny Ross.

Variety

7 p. m.—Kate Smith (WBBM): Claudette Colbert, Henry Fonda in "Drums Along the Mohawk."

8 p. m.—Johnny Presents (WBBM): "Last Night," "I'll Follow My Secret Heart" and a "perfect crime."

8:30 p. m.—George Jessel (WMAQ): Joan Blondell, Alex Morrison, Joe Laurie, Jr.

Saturdaytime

9:30 a. m.—High School Party (WMAQ): with Bea Petersen, 16-year-old Olympics swimmer.

11 a. m.—Milestones in Music (WMAQ): Eastman School Symphony plays works of 18th century composers. Education Forum (WCFL, WTMJ): west coast labor, political, educational leaders on "Some Conflicts in American Democracy." Country Journal (WBBM): champion cornhuskers.

11:30 a. m.—Farm and Home Hour (WIBA, WMAQ): Four-H achievement day.

1:30 p. m.—Variety Show (WHA): Vic Perrin, master of ceremonies; concert orchestra, directed by Hal Klatz; Dick Kepler and Gretchen Nommenson, vocalists; Connie Hastings, pianist; dramatic sketch, Mary Theobald's "Prattlepuss," Sigma Phi singers.

4:30 p. m.—Bull Session (WBBM): "The Frontier—Gone Today, Here Tomorrow?"

5:45 p. m.—Eddie Cantor (WMAQ): works for Chicago charities.