

Replies Dies' Charges Communism

Dr. Harry F. Ward, chairman of the American League for Peace and Democracy, will reply to Rep. Martin Dies (D., Tex.) in a broadcast at 10:30 tonight through WBBM. Dies declared in a speech on the same station last week that "the league is simply the Communist party traveling on one of its many false passports."

Other attractions tonight:

Religion

6 p. m. — Message of Israel (WENR): Rabbi Herbert S. Goldstein, New York city, on "Doctrine of Judaism—Prayer."

Drama

7 p. m. — Gang Busters (WBBM): story of Herman Taylor, who shot defenseless man, shielded himself with a child.

8 p. m. — Arch Oboler Play (WIBA, WMAQ): Billy Halop in "Young Mr. Trouble."

8:30 p. m. — Death Valley Days (WMAQ): "Mornin' on the Desert."

Serious Music

9 p. m. — NBC Symphony (WCFL): Arturo Toscanini conducts second and fourth Beethoven symphonies, second "Leonore" overture (on WIBA at 9:30).

Popular Music

8 p. m. — Your Hit Parade (WBBM): Barry Wood succeeds Lanny Ross as soloist.

8:45 p. m. — Saturday Night Serenade (WBBM): west coast football songs, "Man and His Dream," "Lilacs in the Rain," "I Give My Heart."

Variety

7:30 p. m. — Stop Me If You've Heard This One (WMAQ): with Milton Bearle, Ward "Beetle" Wilson.

8 p. m. — National Barn Dance (WLS): new and old tunes, plus dramatization of Will Rogers' life.

Quiz

9:30 p. m. — What's My Name? (WMAQ): returns to the air.

Discussion

8:30 p. m. — People's Platform (WBBM): war and the farmer.

8 p. m. — Art for Your Sake (WCFL): El Greco and his "View of Toledo." . . . Montparnasse Forum (WIND): Judge F. M. Braude, Moissaye Boguslawski, Leah D. Taylor.