

Radio News and Programs

Lon Clarke keeps late hours—but both he and listeners to WLW's "Moon River" program like the idea. Clarke reads the poems which are offered against a background of songs and organ music daily at 11:30 p. m.

City Athenia Survivors to Top Armistice Day Programs Saturday

Echoes of peace and war will be heard on the air Saturday in special Armistice day programs which will include an interview with two Madison survivors of the torpedoed Athenia. The day's headlines, exclusive of sports broadcasts:

Armistice Day

10 a. m.—Red Cross Program (WIBA): Carlton Brechler interviews Florence Hargrave and Jeanette Jordan, Athenia survivors . . . Arlington Cemetery (WLW): Charles A. Edison, Raymond J. Kelly, United States Army band, others (on WIBA at 10:15) . . . American Legion (WLS): roundtable discussion.

11:15 a. m.—Peace Program (WBBM): Dr. Hu Shih, Chinese ambassador; Gabriel Turbay, Colombian ambassador; Pres. Juan

Orosemena of Panama; Foreign Minister Oswaldo Aranha of Brazil; Judge Antonio de Bustamante y Sirven, Cuban minister of Hague court; Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler of Columbia university.

11:30 p. m.—American Legion (WBBM): Illinois Commander L. N. Bittinger raises a voice of 1918. 5 p. m.—Mundelein College (WENR): music, drama.

Discussion

11 a. m.—Education Forum (WTMJ): "Democracy and the Underprivileged."

4:30 p. m.—Bull Session (WBBM): "Schools for What?"

Music

10 a. m.—Ohio State University Chorus (WIND): music from England.

11 a. m.—Milestones in Music (WMAQ): early ballets.

Variety

3:30 p. m.—The Play Circle (WHA): student entertainers.

News Broadcasts

FRIDAY NIGHT

5:00—WCFL	8:30—WGN
5:30—WLW	9:00—WIND WCFL
5:15—WCCO	9:15—WGN WCFL
5:25—WTMJ WENR	10:00—WTMJ WMAQ
5:30—WIBA	10:00—WIBA WLW
5:45—KMOX WCCO	10:15—WBBM
5:45—WBBM WLW	10:30—KMOX WCCO

Sen. Wheeler, Summerall Talk Tonight

Two pre-Armistice day talks will be broadcast tonight.

Sen. Burton K. Wheeler (D., Mont.) will address a mass meeting of the "Keep America Out of War congress" at 9:15 through WENR and Gen. Charles P. Summerall, First Division commander during the World war, will speak at 9:45 through WGN.

Other acts tonight:

Discussion

8:30 p. m.—Dane County Safety Council (WIBA): Sgt. O. F. Larson of county traffic department tells how blood tests help convict drunk drivers.

Serious Music

7 p. m.—Concert Hour (WIBA, WMAQ): "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice," "La Serenata," "Armorer's Song," "John Peel"; plus Grantland Rice, Coaches Bo McMillan of Indiana, Don Fauroc of Missouri.

Popular Music

8 p. m.—Waltz Time (WIBA, WMAQ): "What's New," "Indian Summer," "Love's Lament."

9:30 p. m.—Young Man With a Band (WBBM): Kay Kyser.

Drama

8:30 p. m.—First Nighter (WBBM): "Sealed Envelope."

Variety

7 p. m.—Kate Smith (WBBM): with Glenda Farrell, Group theater, others.

8:30 p. m.—George Jessel (WMAQ): with Dick Powell, Sid Silvers, John Held, Jr.

Winnie, Ryan to Air Badger-Illini Game

At least six football games will be broadcast Saturday by stations heard here regularly, with the Wisconsin-Illinois battle on three of them.

The Badgers' battle at Champaign will be described by Russ Winnie over WIBA-WTMJ at 1:45 p. m. and by Quin Ryan through WGN at the same hour. Other broadcasts:

Army vs. Harvard, with Ted Husinz, WJHD, 12:45 p. m.
Princeton vs. Dartmouth, with Jim Britt, WMAQ, 12:45 p. m.

Texas A. and M. vs. Southern Methodist, with Bill Stern, eastern and southern NBC stations, 2:15 p. m., WENR, 3 p. m. (WIBA