

John Garfield To Present Second Part Of Radio Drama

Vallee Returns As Pinch Hitter For Don Ameche On Bergen Program; Benny Polishes Up Gags

John Garfield, a screen and radio veteran after a year in Hollywood, will conclude his performance in "The Road Goes Further," two-part Silver Theatre drama dedicated to the heroic workers in the United States Public Health service, over WABC Sunday at 6 p. m.

"The Road Goes Further," written especially for Garfield by True Boardman and directed by Conrad Nagel, is the romantic story of a young city doctor's single-handed fight against a pellagra scourge in a small southern milling town.

Rudy Vallee, radio's veteran master of ceremonies, will resume that familiar role before the microphone Sunday at 7 p. m. over WEAF. Vallee is expected to make four appearances as pinch-hitter for vacationing Don Ameche. Whether or not he will be able to settle the differences between knotladen Charlie McCarthy and Edgar Bergen, is a moot question, but Mortimer Snerd will have to be reckoned with. Dorothy Lamour and Robert Armstrong will supply the special arrangements of the day's hit tunes.

Jean Arthur, co-star with James Stewart in the hit film, "Mr. Smith Goes to Washington," goes to bat for Charlie McCarthy in his campaign to oust Mortimer and get back on Bergen's lap.

Jack Benny, in rare form for heckling after five weeks of banter with Dennis Day's ma, will allow Mary Livingstone to read her latest letter from home over WEAF Sunday at 7 p. m. In the meantime, Jack is polishing up his best mother-in-law gags.

Following the verbal scrimmage Jack will hitch up his shoulder pads and warm up the Benny "Point-A-Minute Moleskinners" or an inter-sectional gridiron battle with the "Old Orchard Ogres," captained by that astute Monday morning quarterback, Fred Allen. Jack will coach, with Larry Livingstone and Mrs. Day as cheerleaders. Dennis Day, the arribling water boy, will sing Libas in "The Run" and Phil Harris and his orchestra will play "Stop. It's Wonderful."

Ned Sparks, in the role of the rough hotel clerk, will bandy insults with Arthur Q. Bryan as highlight of the weekly Grouch Club program Sunday at 6:30 p. m. over WEAF. Beth Wilson will

BEST BETS SUNDAY

P. M.

6:00 - Conrad Nagel's Theatre, WABC.

6:30 - Radio's Grouch Club, WEAF.

7:00 - Jack Benny, WEAF.

7:30 - Screen Guild, WABC.

8:00 - Charlie McCarthy Hour, WEAF.

sing "My Last Goodbye" and Leon Leonardi's orchestra will play a special arrangement of "Cheri Berrin Bin."

Charles Laughton will make one of his very rare radio appearances when he joins Elsa Lanchester, Jean Hersholt, Roger Pryor and Oscar Bradley in "The Beachcomber," on the "Screen Guild Theatre," Sunday over WABC at 7:30 p. m.

The noted English character actor, who has just completed the starring role in the film, "Hunchback of Notre Dame," will do a triple job on the radio version of "The Beachcomber," taken from his former motion picture success. Not only will he portray the leading role, but he will aid in the writing and directing of the program.

The admonition "Stay As Sweet As You Are" will be tendered Frank Munn's opening solo in the American Album of Familiar Music, Sunday at 9:30 p. m., over WEAF. Munn also will sing Bill Hill's "Home On the Range" and two duets with contralto Elizabeth Lennox, "Goodnight Sweetheart" and "Love Is a Dancing Thing." Jean Dickenson, soprano, will have "Mirelle Waltz" as her solo. Gustave Haenschen will conduct the orchestra in the "Skater's" waltz and the Buckingham choir will offer a special arrangement of "Carry Me Back to the Lone Prairie."

Glenn Miller, whose "Moonlight Serenade" skyrocketed him to musical prominence, will make a tour of Gotham on the Bandwagon Sunday from 7:30 to 8 p. m., over WEAF. Miller, who features the clarinet section in his arrangements of popular tunes, will be introduced and interviewed by Henry M. Neely, master of ceremonies.

Slingin' Sammy Baugh, stellar quarterback of the professional Washington Redskins and former All-American, will discuss his specialty of hanging 40-yard forward passes on the outstretched fingers of his team-mates during Bill Stern's Sports Newsreel of the Air, Sunday at 9:45 p. m., over WJZ. In addition Stern will present the day's big story, the weekly feature, a profile and the sport highlight of the week.

A giant robot that responds to thought-waves is the central figure in the Shadow episode appropriately entitled, "Murder By Colossus," Sunday at 5:30 p. m. over MBS. Exhibited at a trade show, the robot's actions were guided by a sinister hunchback, who has the machine-man kill the inventor's wife. Following a kidnaping and an automobile accident, the criminal and his plot are discovered and foiled. Bill Johnston, Marjorie Anderson and Ken Delmar are featured in the drama.

The Joyce Kilmer Shrine at New Brunswick, N. J., will be Ted Malone's stop on his Pilgrimage of Poetry Sunday. In the broadcast, at 1 p. m., over WJZ, Malone will describe the interior of the shrine, dedicated to the author of "Trees," and also will read from the poet's works.

"Romeo and Juliet" will be heard as the Great Plays presentation, Sunday at 2:00 p. m., over WJZ. Charles Warburton of the production division, will direct the Shakespearean drama.

Mabel Thorpe Boardman, secretary of the American Red Cross, and regarded as the motivating factor in its reaching its present high efficiency, will receive a tribute as "the woman of the week" on the "Hour of Charm" program with Phil Spitalny's orchestra over WEAF Sunday at 10 p. m. Miss Boardman will also be interviewed on the program.

Jiggs, 110-pound orang-utan, whose hobby is playing the harmonica, will head the list of guests on Dave Elman's "Hobby Lobby" Sunday at 5 p. m., over WABC.

As his selection for the evening Jiggs has selected "The Bee," a number made famous by that eminent violinist, Mr. Jack Benny. Several years ago Fred Allen made the statement that an ape could play "The Bee" as well as Mr. Benny, and now Jiggs has come forward to prove Mr. Allen's assertion.

Other guests who will tell about their spare time activities are Dana Lamb, a modern Robinson Crusoe; E. S. Darlington of Schenectady, N. Y., who tends his baby via short wave radio, and Gilbert Hedden of Elizabeth, N. J., whose hobby is searching for buried treasure.

CRANIUM CRACKERS

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 12
 Eastern Standard—Subtract One Hr. for CST, 2 Hrs. for MT.—P.M.
 Changes in programs as listed due to last-minute network corrections.
 1:00—Modern Music—nbc-wef-cast
 We the Wives Quiz—nbc-red-west
 The Pilgrimage of Poetry—nbc-wjz
 Church of the Air Sermon—cos-wabe
 Don Arnez with Orchestra—nbs-wjz
 1:15—Auntie's Family & Song—nbc-wjz
 Time to Live, Discussion—nbs-wor
 The Singing Canaries—nbs-midwest
 1:30—From Hollywood Today—nbc-wef
 "The 137" Dance Orchestra—nbc-wjz
 Piano Brown's Strings—chs-wabe
 Sunday Lutheran Hour—nbs-eham
 2:00—String Symph.—nbc-wef-east
 Smoke Dreams Music—nbc-red-west
 Great Play, Romeo-Juliet—nbc-wjz
 Democracy in Action—nbs-wabe-net
 Mystery History in Quiz—nbs-eham

STATIONS THAT MAKE UP
THE NETWORK