

Programs

nevich Ship Battle Tonight

"Artist's Life."

9:30 p. m.—Young Man With a Band (WBBM): Raymond Scott offers "Peanut Vender," "War Dance of a Wooden Indian."

Drama

8:30 p. m.—First Nighter (WBBM): "Jousting the Jinxes," story of a mummy.

Discussion

8:30 p. m.—Dane County Safety Council (WIBA): Harvey W. Mohr, safety department engineer, on "The Dangers of Carbon Monoxide."

Quiz

7 p. m.—Quixie Doodles (WGN): with Jovial T. Laffingwell, dean of Cheerful-Refund-Givers.

Variety

7 p. m.—Kate Smith (WBBM): Group theater in "Thunder Rock;" "Snow Village" sketch; Abbott and Costello.

8 p. m.—Johnny Presents (WBBM): "A Plan for Murder," new Marcin story; college medley. "100 to One," "I Didn't Know What Time It Was," "Kalua."

8:30 p. m.—George Jessel (WMAQ): Arthur Train, Ray Perkins, Eleanor Holm, and Peter the Great.

Fan Fare

Walter O'Keefe's vocalist, Mary Martin, has been signed to play the part of "Cindy Lou" in Paramount's production of Clare Boothe's play, "Kiss the Boys Goodbye."

Harman, soundman on the west coast end of the Star theater, had a few lines on last week's show and proved so funny that Producer Ed Gardner is making him a regular member of the cast effective this week.

Ginger Jones is hobbling to "Caroline's Golden Store" broadcasts with a badly sprained ankle....she tripped over a rug in her new apartment.

Les Damon is radio's latest Jekyll-Hyde: He's that tough gangster in "Arnold Grimm's Daughter" and that Betty Winkler bridegroom in "Girl Alone."