

RUSS 'U. S. and War' Tonight at 6:30

A government official, a peace league director, and a businessman will discuss "The United States and Efforts to End the War" tonight at 6:30 over station WBBM. Clark Eichelberger, director of the League of Nations assn., Col. George Harvey, president of the borough of Queens, New York City, and Ira Hirschmann, department store executive, will air their views during the "People's Platform" broadcast.

Other outstanding programs for tonight follow, classified:

DISCUSSION

6:30 p. m.—Art for Your sake (WTMJ): Dr. Barnard Meyers in a discussion of James M. W. Turner's "Grand Canal, Venice." (On WCFL at 8 p. m.)

Classical Music

9 p. m. — NBO Symphony (WCFL): Arturo Toscanini features the Lento and Scherzo movements of Beethoven's last Quartet, Opus 135, in F Major. Other numbers: Overtures One and Two of "Leonore" and Beethoven's Eighth Symphony in F Major. (On WIBA at 9:30 p. m.)

Popular Music

8:45 p. m.—Saturday Serenade (WBBM): a salute to the colleges.

9 p. m. — Benny Goodman (WBBM): Mildred Bailey sings "My Prayer" and "St. Louis Blues."

Dramatics

7 p. m. — Gang Busters (WBBM): concluding episode of the "Blonde Tigress."

8 p. m.—Arch Oboler play (WIBA, WMAQ): Nan Sunderland in "Mirage," the change of lives and viewpoints.

8:30 p. m.—Death Valley Days (WMAQ): how Reno, Nev., was named.

Variety

7:30 p. m. — Youth vs. Age (WIBA, WLS): the voice of Betty Boop in the quizcast . . . Milton Berle (WMAQ): Peter Arno, guest.

8 p. m.—National Barn Dance (WLS): Joe Emmerson, baritone, guest on Thanksgiving program.