

ews and A

uestar List son, Pauly, Janssen

Guestars are plentiful on the airplanes tonight. Some of the "big names" who will broadcast include Werner Janssen, Al Jolson, Francis X. Bushman, Don Ameche, Nancy Kelly, Elsie Janis, and Rose Pauly. Details follow below, classified:

Musical

7 p. m.—Concert Hour (WIBA, WMAQ): Lucille Manners-highlights Thomas' "Connais tu le Pays" from "Mignon" and "My Bill" from "Show Boat."

11 p. m.—Los Angeles Philharmonic (WIBA): Werner Janssen directs the orchestra in an All-Sibelius program with Rose Pauly, soprano, as soloist.

Dramatics

8:30 p. m.—First Nighter (WBBM): a play, a role, and Hollywood.

Variety

7 p. m.—Kate Smith (WBBM): Al Jolson, Don Ameche, and Nancy Kelly drop in to preview the film, "Swanee River."

8 p. m.—Plantation Party (WENR): a resolution is as strong as its weakest point. . . Waltz Time (WIBA, WMAQ): Frank Munn sings "At the Balalaika" . . .

Johnny Presents (WBBM): "Smoke Out," a perfect crime thriller.

8:30 p. m.—George Jessel (WMAQ): Elsie Janis, entertainer, Ann Pennington, dancer, and Francis X. Bushman, silent matinee idol, guests.

10 p. m.—Fred Waring (WMAQ): introducing the "Rose Bowl Song."

Miscellaneous

9:30 p. m.—What Would You Have Done (WENR): a new audience participating program.

9:30 p. m.—Advancement of Science (WIND): interviewing nation's foremost scientists in convention.